

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. BENJAMIN RYAN TILLMAN, of Trenton, was born in Edgefield County, S. C., August 11, 1847; received an academic education under the instruction of George Golphin at Bethany, in the same county; quit school in July, 1864, to join the Confederate army, but was stricken with a severe illness, which caused the loss of his left eye and kept him an invalid for two years; followed farming as a pursuit and took no active part in politics till he began the agitation in 1886 for industrial and technical education which culminated in the establishment of the Clemson Agricultural and Mechanical College, at Calhoun's old home, Fort Hill; the demand for educational reform broadened into a demand for other changes in State affairs, and he was put forward by the farmers as a candidate for governor in 1890; after an exciting and heated canvass he received the nomination in the Democratic convention by a vote of 270 to 50 for his opponent, and was elected in November following; this was his first political office, and he was reelected in 1892 by an overwhelming vote; his term as governor was signalized by the passage of the dispensary law for the control of the liquor traffic by the State and by the establishment of another college, the Winthrop Normal and Industrial College for Women, at Rock Hill, an institution which bids fair to lead all similar schools in the South; entered the race for the Senate against General Butler and the two canvassed the State, county by county, with the result that Tillman was elected as a Democrat by the general assembly by a vote of 131 to 21 for Butler. His term of service will expire March 3, 1901.

REPRESENTATIVES.

FIRST DISTRICT.

(Population, ———.) 113,320

COUNTIES.—Charleston, Georgetown, and Beaufort, and the townships of Anderson, Hope, Indian Kings, Laws, Mingo, Penn, Ridge, Sutton, and Turkey, of the county of Williamsburg, the townships of Collins, Adams Run, Glover, Frazier, Lowndes, and Blake, of the county of Colleton, and all of the county of Berkeley except such townships as are embraced in the Seventh Congressional District.

GEORGE WASHINGTON MURRAY was born September 22, 1853, of slave parents, near Rembert, Sumter County, S. C.; emancipation found him a lad of 11 summers; bereft of both parents, thrown upon the rugged shores of early emancipation, after a cruel and dehumanizing war had deprived the population of almost all the finer sensibilities of human sympathy and philanthropy; without a friend upon whom to rely for either aid or advice, he entered upon the fierce combat then in progress in an impoverished section for the indispensable bread of life; among the waifs of his neighborhood in 1866 he picked up his alphabet and acquired an imperfect and crude pronunciation of monosyllables; during the next five years he so industriously applied himself in efforts to improve his meager stock of knowledge that in January, 1871, he entered, while in session, for the first time, a day school, but as teacher, not scholar; he taught until the fall of 1874, when he successfully passed a competitive examination and obtained a scholarship as subfreshman in the reconstructed University of South Carolina; having passed through his alma mater to his junior year, the accession to power of an administration unfriendly to the coeducation of the races (1876) forced him without her doors; he reentered the public schools of his county as teacher, and was employed in this capacity till 1890. He was elected to the Fifty-third and was renominated for the Fifty-fourth Congress by the Republicans. The certificate of election to the latter Congress was given to his opponent, William Elliott, but as a result of a contest the seat was awarded to Mr. Murray on June 4, 1896.

JENKINS, of Chippewa Falls, was born in Weymouth, England, August 20, 1843; settled in Baraboo, Wis., in June, 1852; attended the common schools a few terms; served during the war as a member of Company A, Sixth Wisconsin Volunteers; served as clerk of the circuit court of Baraboo, Sauk County, as city clerk and city attorney of Chippewa Falls, as member of the assembly from Chippewa County, as county judge of Chippewa County, and was appointed United States attorney of the Territory of Wyoming by President Grant in March, 1876; was elected to the Fifty-fourth Congress as a Republican, receiving 19,836 votes, against 9,054 votes for E. C. Kennedy, Democrat, 3,855 votes for William Monroe, Populist, and 1,531 votes for John Holt, Prohibitionist. Reelected.

WYOMING.

SENATORS.

FRANCIS E. WARREN, of Cheyenne, was born in Hinsdale, Mass., June 20, 1844; received a common-school and academic education; enlisted in 1862 in the Forty-ninth Massachusetts Regiment, and served as private and noncommissioned officer in that regiment till it was mustered out of the service; was afterwards captain in the Massachusetts militia; was engaged in farming and stock raising in Massachusetts till early in 1868, when he removed to Wyoming (then a part of Dakota); is at present engaged in mercantile, live-stock, and lighting business; was president of the council, Wyoming legislature, in 1873, and member of the council in 1884; was mayor of Cheyenne, and served three terms as treasurer of Wyoming; was a delegate to the national Republican convention at Chicago in 1888; was appointed governor of Wyoming by President Arthur and removed by President Cleveland; was again appointed governor of Wyoming by President Harrison and served till the Territory was admitted as a State, when he was elected governor; was elected to the United States Senate as a Republican, November 18, 1890, took his seat December 1, 1890, and served until the expiration of term, March 3, 1893; was reelected as a Republican, January 23, 1895. His term of service will expire March 3, 1901.

CLARENCE D. CLARK, of Evanston, was born at Sandy Creek, Oswego County, N. Y., April 16, 1851; was educated in the common schools and at the Iowa State University; admitted to the bar in 1874 and taught school and practiced law in Delaware County, Iowa, until 1881; in that year removed to Evanston, Wyo., where he has since resided; was prosecuting attorney for Uinta County four years; was appointed associate justice of the Territory of Wyoming in 1890, but declined the office; upon the admission of Wyoming as a State was elected to the Fifty-first and Fifty-second Congresses; was defeated for reelection to the Fifty-third Congress by a fusion of Democrats and Populists; was elected January 23, 1895, to the United States Senate for the term ending March 3, 1899, to fill the vacancy caused by the failure of the legislature to elect in 1892-93.

REPRESENTATIVE.

AT LARGE.

(Population, 60,705.)

FRANK W. MONDELL, of Newcastle, was born in St. Louis, Mo., November 6, 1860; both of his parents having died before he reached his seventh year, he went to live with friends in Iowa, where he resided on a farm until 18 years of age; attended the local district schools and received instruction in the higher branches from a private tutor; engaged in mercantile pursuits and in railway construction in various Western States and Territories; settled in Wyoming in 1887; was elected mayor of the new town of Newcastle in 1888 and served until 1895; was elected a member of the first State senate in 1890; served as president of that body at the session of 1892; was a delegate to the Republican national convention at Minneapolis in 1892; was elected to the Fifty-fourth Congress as a Republican, receiving 10,068 votes, against 6,152 votes for Henry A. Coffeen, Democrat, and 2,906 votes for S. E. Sealy, Populist.

TERRITORIAL DELEGATES.

ARIZONA.

(Population, 59,620.)

NATHAN O. MURPHY, of Phoenix, was born in Lincoln County, Me., in 1849; received a liberal high-school education and early in life fitted himself for the part he was destined to play in a rich, though, at the time he arrived in Arizona, an undeveloped country; before he was 21 years old he taught school in Wisconsin; shortly after attaining his majority he followed the course of empire to the West; settled in Prescott, Ariz., in April, 1883, being farseeing enough to realize that a land so rich in minerals and so fertile when properly irrigated must eventually come to the front; his first business ventures were in mining and real estate, in connection with his brother, Frank Murphy, and they were highly successful; was appointed, March 21, 1889, secretary of Arizona; the governorship was tendered to him two years later and he took his seat May 11, 1892; was unanimously chosen a delegate to the national Republican convention held in Minneapolis in June, 1892, and succeeded, among other things, in getting the arid-land interests of the West recognized in the platform of his party; during his incumbency of the office of secretary he was more than three-fourths of his time governor de facto; in politics he is a Republican of the most stalwart stripe; under his two-years leadership the Territory made wonderful progress; he succeeded in arousing interest in Arizona throughout the length and breadth of the continent, and millions of dollars are being expended in developing the country through his efforts; was the unanimous nominee of his party for Delegate to the Fifty-fourth Congress and was elected by a large plurality, notwithstanding that Arizona was assumed to be Democratic, receiving 5,648 votes, against 4,772 votes for Herndon, Democrat, and 2,902 votes for O'Neill, Populist.

NEW MEXICO.

(Population, 153,593.)

THOMAS B. CATRON, of Santa Fe, was born October 6, 1840, in Lafayette County, Mo.; received a common-school education and graduated at the University of Missouri in the class of 1860; served four years in the Confederate army; went to New Mexico in 1866 and commenced the practice of law, soon after which he was appointed district attorney of the Third district and held the position for two years; was elected to the legislative assembly in 1868 and 1869, and in 1869 was appointed attorney-general of the Territory, which position he held over three years and resigned to take the position of United States attorney, to which he was appointed by President Grant, and held that position nearly seven years; was elected to and served as a member of the legislative council in the sessions of 1884 and 1889; has been engaged in the practice of law ever since he went to New Mexico and had an extensive clientage; was the Republican candidate for Delegate to the Fifty-third Congress against Hon. Antonio Joseph and was beaten by 579 majority; was again the Republican candidate for the Fifty-fourth Congress, against the same opponent, and was elected, receiving 18,113 votes, against 15,351 votes for Antonio Joseph, Democrat, and 1,835 votes for Mills, Populist.

OKLAHOMA.

(Population, 61,834.)

DENNIS T. FLYNN, of Guthrie, was born at Phoenixville, Pa., February 13, 1862; removed two years later to Buffalo, N. Y., where he resided until 1880, whence he removed to Riverside, Iowa; was admitted to the bar and established the Riverside Leader; removed from Iowa in 1881 to Kiowa, Kans., where he established the Kiowa Herald and pursued the practice of law; was elected city attorney of that place and also appointed its first postmaster; removed to Oklahoma Territory April 22, 1889, and was commissioned by President Harrison postmaster of the city of Guthrie, which position he still held when elected Delegate to the Fifty-third Congress; was reelected to the Fifty-fourth Congress as a Republican, receiving 21,392 votes, against 12,074 votes for Joseph Wisby, Democrat, and 15,894 votes for Ralph Beaumont, Populist.

THE CAPITOL.

The Capitol is situated in latitude $38^{\circ} 53' 20.4''$ north and longitude $77^{\circ} 00' 35.7''$ west from Greenwich. It fronts east, and stands on a plateau 88 feet above the level of the Potomac.

THE ORIGINAL BUILDING.

The southeast corner stone of the original building was laid on the 18th of September, 1793, by President Washington, with Masonic ceremonies. It is constructed of sandstone from quarries on Aquia Creek, Virginia. The work was done under the direction of Stephen H. Hallette, James Hoban, George Hadfield, and B. H. Latrobe, architects. The north wing was finished in 1800 and the south wing in 1811. A wooden passageway connected them. On the 24th of August, 1814, the interior of both wings was destroyed by fire, set by the British. The damage to the building was immediately repaired. In 1818 the central portion of the building was commenced, under the architectural superintendence of Charles Bulfinch. The original building was finally completed in 1827. Its cost, including the grading of the grounds, alterations, and repairs, up to 1827, was $2,433,844.13.

THE EXTENSIONS.

The corner stone of the extensions was laid on the 4th of July, 1851, by President Fillmore, Daniel Webster officiating as orator. This work was prosecuted under the architectural direction of Thomas U. Walter till 1865, when he resigned. It was completed under the supervision of Edward Clark, the present architect of the Capitol. The material used in the walls is white marble from the quarries at Lee, Mass., and that in the columns from the quarries at Cockeysville, Md. These extensions were first occupied for legislative purposes January 4, 1859.

DIMENSIONS OF THE BUILDING.

The entire length of the building from north to south is 751 feet 4 inches, and its greatest dimension from east to west 350 feet. The area covered by the building is 153,112 square feet.

THE DOME.

The dome of the original central building was constructed of wood, covered with copper. This was replaced in 1856 by the present structure of cast iron. It was completed in 1865. The entire weight of iron used is 8,909,200 pounds.

The dome is crowned by a bronze statue of Freedom, which is 19 feet 6 inches high and weighs 14,985 pounds. It was modeled by Crawford. The height of the dome above the base line of the east front is 287 feet 5 inches. The height from the top of the balustrade of the building is 217 feet 11 inches. The greatest diameter at the base is 135 feet 5 inches.

The rotunda is 95 feet 6 inches in diameter, and its height from the floor to the top of the canopy is 180 feet 3 inches.

The Senate Chamber is 113 feet 3 inches in length by 80 feet 3 inches in width and 36 feet in height. The galleries will accommodate one thousand persons.

The Representatives' Hall is 139 feet in length by 93 feet in width and 36 feet in height.

The room now occupied by the Supreme Court was, until 1859, occupied as the Senate Chamber. Previous to that time the court occupied the room immediately beneath, now used as a law library.

THE CAPITOL.

The Capitol is situated in latitude $38^{\circ} 53' 20.4''$ north and longitude $77^{\circ} 00' 35.7''$ west from Greenwich. It fronts east, and stands on a plateau 88 feet above the level of the Potomac.

THE ORIGINAL BUILDING.

The southeast corner stone of the original building was laid on the 18th of September, 1793, by President Washington, with Masonic ceremonies. It is constructed of sandstone from quarries on Aquia Creek, Virginia. The work was done under the direction of Stephen H. Hallette, James Hoban, George Hadfield, and B. H. Latrobe, architects. The north wing was finished in 1800 and the south wing in 1811. A wooden passageway connected them. On the 24th of August, 1814, the interior of both wings was destroyed by fire, set by the British. The damage to the building was immediately repaired. In 1818 the central portion of the building was commenced, under the architectural superintendence of Charles Bulfinch. The original building was finally completed in 1827. Its cost, including the grading of the grounds, alterations, and repairs, up to 1827, was $2,433,844.13.

THE EXTENSIONS.

The corner stone of the extensions was laid on the 4th of July, 1851, by President Fillmore, Daniel Webster officiating as orator. This work was prosecuted under the architectural direction of Thomas U. Walter till 1865, when he resigned. It was completed under the supervision of Edward Clark, the present architect of the Capitol. The material used in the walls is white marble from the quarries at Lee, Mass., and that in the columns from the quarries at Cockeysville, Md. These extensions were first occupied for legislative purposes January 4, 1859.

DIMENSIONS OF THE BUILDING.

The entire length of the building from north to south is 751 feet 4 inches, and its greatest dimension from east to west 350 feet. The area covered by the building is 153,112 square feet.

THE DOME.

The dome of the original central building was constructed of wood, covered with copper. This was replaced in 1856 by the present structure of cast iron. It was completed in 1865. The entire weight of iron used is 8,909,200 pounds.

The dome is crowned by a bronze statue of Freedom, which is 19 feet 6 inches high and weighs 14,985 pounds. It was modeled by Crawford. The height of the dome above the base line of the east front is 287 feet 5 inches. The height from the top of the balustrade of the building is 217 feet 11 inches. The greatest diameter at the base is 135 feet 5 inches.

The rotunda is 95 feet 6 inches in diameter, and its height from the floor to the top of the canopy is 180 feet 3 inches.

The Senate Chamber is 113 feet 3 inches in length by 80 feet 3 inches in width and 36 feet in height. The galleries will accommodate one thousand persons.

The Representatives' Hall is 139 feet in length by 93 feet in width and 36 feet in height.

The room now occupied by the Supreme Court was, until 1859, occupied as the Senate Chamber. Previous to that time the court occupied the room immediately beneath, now used as a law library.

The Library of Congress occupies the entire western projection of the central Capitol building. The original library was commenced in 1800, but was destroyed with the Capitol in 1814 during the war with England. It was afterwards replenished by the purchase by Congress of the library belonging to ex-President Jefferson, embracing about 7,000 volumes. In 1851 it contained 55,000 volumes, and by an accidental fire in that year the whole collection was destroyed except 20,000 volumes. It was rebuilt in 1852, when $75,000 was appropriated in one sum to replenish the collection. The new library halls, three in number, are fitted up with ornamental iron cases and iron ceilings, the whole being perfectly fireproof. The library is recruited by regular appropriations made by Congress, which average about $11,000 per annum; also by additions received by copyright, by exchanges, and from the Smithsonian Institution. The library of the Smithsonian Institution has now been deposited in the Library of Congress, where it is secured against loss by fire. This collection is especially rich in scientific works, embracing the largest assemblage of the transactions of learned societies which exists in the country. The library was also enriched by the presentation to the Government, in 1882, of the large private library of the late Dr. Joseph M. Toner, of Washington, numbering over 27,000 volumes, besides nearly as many pamphlets. The donor, whose public spirit is worthy of emulation, added to the collection annually. The library of copyright books was removed here from the Patent Office in 1870, and all copyrights issued in the United States are now recorded in the books deposited in the office of the Librarian of Congress. The present number of volumes in the whole library, including law books, which are kept in a separate library room under the Supreme Court, is over 745,000, besides about 220,000 pamphlets. A new building to contain its overflowing stores of learning and to afford room for their proper arrangement is nearly completed, a liberal appropriation having been made by successive Congresses. This collection is very rich in history, political science, jurisprudence, and in books, pamphlets, and periodicals of American publication or relating to America. At the same time the library is a universal one in its range, no department of literature or science being unrepresented. The public are privileged to use the books in the library, while Members of Congress and about fifty official members of the Government only can take away books. The library is open every day (Sundays excepted) during the session of Congress, from 9 a. m. to the hour of adjournment. In the recess of Congress it is open between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m.

The new Library Building, immediately east of the Capitol, will be completed and occupied about March 1, 1897.

DEPARTMENT DUTIES.

THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

SECRETARY OF STATE.

The Secretary of State is charged, under the direction of the President, with the duties appertaining to correspondence with the public ministers and the consuls of the United States, and with the representatives of foreign powers accredited to the United States; and to negotiations of whatever character relating to the foreign affairs of the United States. He is also the medium of correspondence between the President and the chief executives of the several States of the United States; he has the custody of the great seal of the United States, and countersigns and affixes such seal to all executive proclamations, to various commissions, and to warrants for the extradition of fugitives from justice. He is regarded as the first in rank among the members of the Cabinet. He is also the custodian of the treaties made with foreign States, and of the laws of the United States. He grants and issues passports, and exequaturs to foreign consuls in the United States are issued through his office. He publishes the laws and resolutions of Congress, amendments to the Constitution, and proclamations declaring the admission of new States into the Union. He is also charged with certain annual reports to Congress relating to commercial information received from diplomatic and consular officers of the United States.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE.

The Assistant Secretary of State becomes the Acting Secretary of State in the absence of the Secretary. Under the organization of the Department the Assistant Secretary, Second Assistant Secretary, and Third Assistant Secretary are charged with the immediate supervision of all correspondence with the diplomatic and consular officers and are intrusted with the preparation of the correspondence upon any questions arising in the course of the public business that may be assigned to them by the Secretary.

CHIEF CLERK.

The Chief Clerk has the general supervision of the clerks and employees and of the business of the Department.

DIPLOMATIC BUREAU.

Diplomatic correspondence and miscellaneous correspondence relating thereto.

CONSULAR BUREAU.

Consular correspondence and miscellaneous correspondence relating thereto.

BUREAU OF INDEXES AND ARCHIVES.

Opening, preparing, indexing, and registering all correspondence to and from the Department; the preservation of the archives.

BUREAU OF ACCOUNTS.

Custody and disbursement of appropriations under direction of the Department; charged with custody of indemnity funds and bonds; care of the property of the Department.

BUREAU OF ROLLS AND LIBRARY.

Custody of the rolls, treaties, etc.; promulgation of the laws, etc.; care and superintendence of the library and public documents; care of the Revolutionary archives, and of papers relating to international commissions.

BUREAU OF STATISTICS.

Edits and publishes the monthly consular reports, special consular reports, and the annual report laid before Congress entitled "Commercial Relations of the United States."

SOLICITOR.

(From the Department of Justice.)

The Solicitor is the law officer of the Department, and investigates questions referred to him by the Secretary and Assistant Secretaries covering matters of both municipal and international law.

THE DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY.

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

The Secretary of the Treasury is charged by law with the management of the national finances. He prepares plans for the improvement of the revenue and for the support of the public credit; superintends the collection of the revenue, and prescribes the forms of keeping and rendering public accounts and of making returns; grants warrants for all moneys drawn from the Treasury in pursuance of appropriations made by law, and for the payment of moneys into the Treasury; and annually submits to Congress estimates of the probable revenues and disbursements of the Government. He also controls the construction of public buildings; the coinage and printing of money; the collection of statistics; the administration of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, Life-Saving, Light-House, Revenue-Cutter, Steamboat-Inspection, and Marine-Hospital branches of the public service, and furnishes generally such information as may be required by either branch of Congress on all matters pertaining to the foregoing.

The routine work of the Secretary's office is transacted in the offices of the Supervising Architect, Director of the Mint, Superintendent of Engraving and Printing, Supervising Surgeon-General of the Marine-Hospital Service, General Superintendent of the Life-Saving Service, Supervising Inspector-General of Steamboats, Bureau of Statistics, Light-House Board, and in the following divisions: Bookkeeping and Warrants; Appointments; Customs; Public Moneys; Loans and Currency; Revenue-Cutter; Stationery, Printing, and Blanks; Mails and Files; Special Agents, and Miscellaneous.

ASSISTANT SECRETARIES OF THE TREASURY.

To Assistant Secretary William Edmond Curtis is assigned the general direction and supervision of all matters relating to the public business assigned to the following divisions: Public Moneys; Loans and Currency; Miscellaneous; the Bureau of Engraving and Printing; the offices of the Chief Clerk and Superintendent (including World's Columbian Exposition); the Supervising Architect; the Supervising Surgeon-General of the Marine-Hospital Service; and the Supervising Inspector-General of the Steamboat-Inspection Service, with authority to sign all letters and papers as Assistant Secretary, or "By order of the Secretary," relating to the business of the above-mentioned divisions, bureaus, and offices that do not by law require the signature of the Secretary of the Treasury.

To Assistant Secretary Charles S. Hamlin is assigned the general direction and supervision of all matters pertaining to the Customs Service, to the accounting system of the Treasury Department, to the public business assigned to the following divisions: Customs; Revenue-Cutter; Special Agents, and Secret Service; to the Light-House Board and Service, and to the Bureau of Statistics, with authority to sign all letters and papers as Assistant Secretary relating to the above-mentioned business, offices, divisions, and bureau that do not by law require the signature of the Secretary of the Treasury.

To Assistant Secretary Scott Wike is assigned the direction and supervision of all matters relating to the public business assigned to the following divisions: Warrants, Estimates, and Appropriations; Stationery, Printing, and Blanks; Mail and Files; the Navigation and Immigration Bureaus, and to the offices of the Life-Saving Service, and the signing of all letters and papers as Assistant Secretary or "By order of the Secretary," relating to the business of the above-mentioned divisions, bureaus, and office that do not by law require the signature of the Secretary of the Treasury.

CHIEF CLERK.

The Chief Clerk supervises, under the immediate direction of the Secretary and Assistant Secretaries, the duties of the clerks and employees connected with the Department; the superintendence of all buildings occupied by the Department in Washington, D. C.; the transmission of the mails; the care of all horses, wagons, and carriages employed; the direction of engineers, machinists, firemen, or laborers; the expenditure of the appropriations for contingent expenses of the Treasury Department; for furniture and repairs of same; fuel, lights, water, and miscellaneous items, and the assignment of custodians' force for buildings under the control of the Department; the distribution of the mail; the custody of the records and files and library of the Secretary's office; the answering of calls from Congress and elsewhere for copies of papers, records, etc.; supervision of all the official correspondence of the Secretary's office, so far as to see that it is expressed in correct and official form; the enforcement of the general regulations of the Department, and the charge of all business of the Secretary's office not assigned.

COMPTROLLER OF THE TREASURY.

The act of July 31, 1894, reorganizing the accounting offices of the Treasury, abolished the offices of Second Comptroller of the Treasury and the Commissioner of Customs, and provided that hereafter the First Comptroller shall be known as the Comptroller of the Treasury. The Comptroller is not charged with the duty of revising accounts, except upon appeal from the settlements made by the Auditors, an appeal to be taken within one year by either the claimant, the head of the Department interested, or by the Comptroller himself. Upon the request of a disbursing officer or the head of a Department, the Comptroller is required to give his decision upon the validity of a payment to be made, which decision, when rendered, shall govern the Auditors and the Comptroller in the settlement of the account involving the payment. He is required to approve, disapprove, or modify all decisions of the Auditors making an original construction or modifying an existing construction of statutes, and to certify his action to the Auditor. He transmits all decisions made by him forthwith to the Auditor or Auditors whose duties are affected thereby. By the regulations of the Department the Comptroller passes upon the sufficiency of authorities to indorse drafts and receive and receipt for money from the Government, upon the evidence presented in applications for duplicates of lost or destroyed United States bonds, drafts, checks, etc. The forms of keeping and rendering all public accounts (except those relating to the postal service), the recovery of debts certified by the Auditors to be due to the United States, and the preservation, with their vouchers and certificates, of accounts finally adjusted, are under the direction of the Comptroller. Upon revision of accounts, appealed from the several Auditors to the Comptroller, his decision upon such revision is final and conclusive upon the executive branch of the Government.

AUDITOR FOR THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

The Auditor for the Treasury Department receives and examines all accounts of salaries and incidental expenses of the office of the Secretary of the Treasury and all bureaus and offices under his direction. All accounts relating to the Customs Service, the public debt, internal revenue, Treasurer and Assistant Treasurers, mints and assay offices, Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Coast and Geodetic Survey, Revenue-Cutter Service, Life-Saving Service, Light-House Board, Marine Hospital, public buildings, Steamboat-Inspection Service, Immigration Service, Bureau of Navigation, Secret Service, Alaskan fur-seal fisheries, and all other business within the jurisdiction of the Department of the Treasury, and certifies the balances arising thereon to the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants.

The subordinate divisions of his office are—

Customs Division.—Receipts and expenditures of the customs service, including fines, emoluments, forfeitures, debentures, drawbacks, and warehouse and bond accounts received from custom-houses.

Internal Revenue Division.—Accounts of collectors of internal revenue, including salaries, contingent expenses, and compensation of storekeepers.

Public-Debt Division.—Redemption of the public debt, including principal, premium, and interest, the payment of interest, redemption of certificates of deposit, notes destroyed.

Miscellaneous Division.—Accounts of mint and assay offices, construction, repair, and preservation of public buildings; Treasurer of the United States, for general receipts and expenditures; Bureau of Engraving and Printing; Coast and Geodetic Survey; Revenue-Cutter Service; Life-Saving Service; Light-House Board; Marine-Hospital Service, and all other miscellaneous accounts coming to this office.

AUDITOR FOR THE WAR DEPARTMENT.

The Auditor for the War Department receives and examines all accounts of salaries and incidental expenses of the offices of the Secretary of War and all bureaus and offices under his direction; all accounts relating to the military establishment, armories and arsenals, national cemeteries, fortifications, public buildings and grounds under the Chief of Engineers, rivers and harbors, the Military Academy, and to all other business within the jurisdiction of the Department of War, and certifies the balances arising thereon to the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants, and sends a copy of each certificate to the Secretary of War.

The work is distributed among six divisions, as follows: Archives Division, Review Division, Mail and Miscellaneous Division, Paymaster and Claims Division, Pay and Bounty Division, and Military Division.

AUDITOR FOR THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT.

The Auditor for the Interior Department shall receive and examine all accounts of salaries and incidental expenses of the office of the Secretary of the Interior, and of all bureaus and offices under his direction, and all accounts relating to Army and Navy pensions, Geological Survey, public lands, Indians, Architect of the Capitol, patents, census, and to all other business within the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior, and certify the balances arising thereon to the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants, and send forthwith a copy of each certificate to the Secretary of the Interior. He also examines and approves or disapproves all requisitions for advances of money made by all persons authorized to do so in the above-named Department.

AUDITOR FOR THE NAVY DEPARTMENT.

The Auditor for the Navy Department examines and settles all accounts of the Navy Department, including the office of the Secretary of the Navy, and all offices and bureaus under his direction, certifying the balances arising thereon to the Secretary of the Treasury (Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants), sending a copy of each certificate to the Secretary of the Navy.

Paymaster's Division.—Examines accounts of pay officers of the Navy and the Marine Corps, also the claims of subsidized railroads, and the naval accounts of the Western Union Telegraph Company.

Record and Claims Division.—Has charge of the records and files of the office, adjusts prize-money accounts, and claims of a miscellaneous character, such as arrears of pay, bounty, etc., arising in the Navy and the Marine Corps, furnishes the Pension Office with service record of officers, sailors, and marines, and prepares tabulated statements for Congress.

Navy Pay and Allotment Division.—Settles accounts of disbursing officers for the purchase of supplies for the Navy, and building, arming, and equipping new ships; accounts of naval attachés at London, Paris, and Berlin; account of fiscal agent of the United States at London; account of disbursing officer of the Navy Department; accounts of coaling stations and miscellaneous claims; also keeps the accounts of allotments made by officers and men of the Navy.

AUDITOR FOR THE STATE AND OTHER DEPARTMENTS.

The Auditor for the State and other Departments receives, examines, and certifies the balances arising thereon to the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants all accounts of salaries and incidental expenses of the offices of the Secretary of State, the Attorney-General, and the Secretary of Agriculture, and of all bureaus and offices under their direction; all accounts relating to all other business within the jurisdiction of the Departments of State, Justice, and Agriculture; all accounts relating to the Diplomatic and Consular Service, the judiciary, United States courts, judgments of the United States courts, Executive Office, Civil Service Commission, Interstate Commerce Commission, Department of Labor, District of Columbia, Fish Commission, Court of Claims and its judgments, Smithsonian Institution, Territorial governments, the Senate, the House of Representatives, the Public Printer, Library of Congress, Botanic Garden, and accounts of all boards, commissions, and establishments of the Government not within the jurisdiction of any of the Executive Departments. He also examines and approves or disapproves all requisitions for advances of money made by all persons authorized to do so in any of the above-named Departments, commissions, or establishments.

AUDITOR FOR THE POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

The Auditor for the Post-Office Department examines and adjusts all accounts relating to the postal service, and his decisions on these are final, unless an appeal be taken in twelve months to the Comptroller. He superintends the collection of all debts due the United States for the service of the Post-Office Department and all penalties imposed, directs suits and all legal proceedings in civil actions, and takes all legal means to enforce the payment of money due the United States for the service of the Post-Office Department. The work of the office is assigned as follows:

The Deputy Auditor assumes charge of the office as Acting Auditor during the absence of the Auditor; signs all official papers designated by the Auditor, which includes drafts, letters, statements, post-office warrants, and other papers; is also charged with the custody and care of the furniture, and has supervision of all requisitions for supplies.

The Chief Clerk has a general supervision of the work of all the clerks in the office; has charge of all correspondence; the opening, reading, and assigning of all letters received; reading, preparing for signature, and press-copying letters sent; keeping the roll and making report of attendance and absence of employees, and all miscellaneous matters not otherwise assigned.

The Disbursing Clerk has charge of the preparation of pay rolls, disbursements, of appropriations for the salaries of officers and employees of the office; the disposition of deposits made in connection with offers of compromise of debts and judgments on post-office accounts, and the receipt and dispatch of the registered mail addressed to and sent from the office. There are seven subordinate divisions, viz:

Assorting and Checking.—Arranges money orders by States and offices in the exact numerical order of their issue, and compares them with the statements of the issuing postmasters.

Bookkeeping.—Has charge of the preparation of the quarterly and annual reports of the receipts and expenditures of the Post-Office Department; receives and audits each postmaster's account, keeping ledger account with the same, also mail contractors; has charge of the general appropriations for the Post-Office Department; registers post-office warrants and drafts; receives all evidence of deposits to credit of postal revenue, and states the account against the general Treasury.

Collecting.—The collection of balances due from and the payment of balances due to late and present postmasters, and the final settlement of postal accounts.

Foreign.—Adjustment of postal and money-order accounts with foreign countries.

Inspecting.—Receives and examines the money-order statements of postmasters, comparing the vouchers with the corresponding entries on the statements, and making additions of the debt and credit sides.

Pay.—The adjustment and payment of all accounts for the transportation of the mails, both foreign and domestic, and post-office supplies.

Recording.—Stating accounts of postmasters at money-order offices, payment of commissions, and collection of balances.

TREASURER OF THE UNITED STATES.

The Treasurer of the United States is charged with the receipt and disbursement of all public moneys that may be deposited in the Treasury at Washington and the subtreasuries at Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, New Orleans, San Francisco, St. Louis, Chicago, and Cincinnati, and in the national-bank United States depositories; is trustee for bonds held to secure national-bank circulation and public deposits in national banks; is custodian of Indian trust-fund bonds; is agent for paying the interest on the public debt, and ex officio commissioner of the sinking fund of the District of Columbia. The Treasury subdivisions are—

Chief Clerk.—Receives and distributes the official mail; has charge of the correspondence and the disposition and payment of the clerical force, and the custody of the records and files; and of the issue of duplicate checks and drafts.

Cash Division.—For receipt and payment of public funds at Washington.

Issue Division.—Completion of new United States notes, gold and silver certificates, and count of silver, gold, and minor coin.

Redemption Division.—All currency except national-bank notes received and redeemed.

Loan Division.—Interest checks prepared and bonds redeemed.

Accounts Division.—The accounts of the Treasury, the subtreasuries, and the United States national-bank depositories are kept.

National Bank Division.—Has custody of bonds held for national-bank circulation, for public deposits, and various public trusts, and makes collection of semi-annual duty.

National Bank Redemption Agency.—Notes of national banks are redeemed and accounted for.

REGISTER OF THE TREASURY.

The Register of the Treasury signs and issues all bonds of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Pacific railroads, the Cherokee Indian lands, the Louisville and Portland Canal Company, and the Spanish indemnity, and transmits to the Treasurer of the United States schedules showing the name of every individual, corporation, etc., holding registered bonds and entitled to receive interest thereon. He signs all transfers conveying money from the United States Treasury to all the United States subtreasuries and depositories, and all the correspondence of the office. He receives, examines, and registers coupon bonds exchanged for registered bonds or redeemed and registered bonds transferred and finally redeemed. He receives, examines, arranges, and registers all redeemed United States notes, gold certificates, silver certificates, Treasury notes, detached interest coupons, interest checks on registered bonds, redeemed fractional currency, and all other United States securities redeemed and destroyed. Also, all customs, internal-revenue, and postage stamps condemned for imperfections and destroyed. He is represented on the committee having in charge the destruction by maceration of certain of the United States securities, etc., mentioned herein. The work is performed in two divisions, as follows:

Division of Loans.—The duties performed in this division include the issue, exchange, transfer and redemption of the bonds before mentioned, and the preparation of the schedules for payment of interest on the registered bonds, etc.; being in detail the receipt of new bonds after their preparation by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and the care of same until required for issue; the issue of bonds upon warrant or certificate of the Secretary of the Treasury, showing the payment of accepted subscriptions for loans, and recording the same; the issue and recording of new registered bonds in place of those assigned by the parties or corporations in whose name they stood, and making a record of the cancellation of the original bonds; the recording of coupon and registered bonds redeemed; the examination of all assignments of registered bonds as to their sufficiency and regularity; the examination of all papers submitted by the representatives of corporations, of the estates of decedents, and of persons under legal disability; also proof of succession where bonds are held in a fiduciary capacity (these papers may refer to parties or corporations in the United States or in foreign countries); the keeping of ledger accounts with every individual, corporation, or other holder of registered bonds; the keeping of general accounts showing all changes in the amounts, and summary statements of transactions in connection with each loan; the preparation of quarterly, semiannual, and annual schedules on various loans for the payment of interest by the Treasurer of the United States, including the footing of the schedules; the preparation of the copy of the same for the printer and the examination of proof; the filing, arrangement, and custody of the various books, records, and bonds, and summary statements of interest, discounts, premiums, and expenses of the public loans, together with all papers and reports connected with the business of the division.

Division of Notes, Coupons, and Currency.—The duties of this division comprise the receiving, counting, examining, arranging, and registering of all redeemed old demand notes, United States notes, gold certificates, silver certificates, Treasury notes, 4 per cent refunding certificates, one-year 5 per cent Treasury notes, two-year 5 per cent Treasury notes, two-year 5 per cent coupon Treasury notes, three-year compound-interest notes, act March 3, 1863, three-year 6 per cent compound-interest notes, act June 30, 1864, and redeemed fractional currency, detached interest coupons, exchanged and redeemed coupon bonds, and interest checks on registered bonds. Also all customs, internal-revenue, and postage stamps condemned for imperfections and destroyed. This division represents the Register on the committee having in charge the destruction by maceration of certain of the United States securities, etc., referred to, and the committee having in charge the destruction of discount, burnt, and mutilated money. All redeemed interest-bearing securities of the United States, including certificates payable to order, are filed in this division.

COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY.

The Comptroller of the Currency has, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, the control of the national banks. The divisions of this Bureau are—

Organization Division.—The organization of national banks.

Issue Division.—The preparation and issue of national-bank circulation.

Reports Division.—The examination and consolidation of the reports of national banks.

Redemption Division.—The redemption and destruction of notes issued by national banks.

DIRECTOR OF THE MINT.

The Director of the Mint has general supervision of all the mints and assay offices of the United States. He prescribes rules, to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, for the transaction of business at the mints and assay offices. He regulates the distribution of silver coin and the charges to be collected of depositors. He receives for adjustment the accounts of the mints and assay offices, superintends their expenditures and annual settlements, and makes special examinations of them when deemed necessary. All appointments, removals, and transfers in the mints and assay offices are subject to his approval. The purchase of silver bullion and the allotment of its coinage are made by the Director, and, at his request, also transfers of the moneys in the mints and assay offices and advances from appropriations for the mint service.

Tests of the weight and fineness of coins struck at the mints are made in the assay laboratory under his charge. The values of the standard coins of foreign countries are annually estimated for custom-house and other public purposes. Two annual reports are prepared by the Director, one for the fiscal year, and printed in the Finance Report of the Secretary of the Treasury, the other for the calendar year, on the statistics of the production of the precious metals.

SOLICITOR.

The Solicitor of the Treasury takes cognizance of all frauds or attempted frauds on the customs revenue. He is charged by law with duties regarding the compromise of debts and with a supervision over suits for the collection of moneys due the United States, excepting those due under internal-revenue laws. His approval is required of official bonds of United States Assistant Treasurers, Department disbursing clerks, collectors of internal revenue, the Secretary and the Chief Clerk of the Department of Agriculture. As the law officer of the Treasury Department many matters are referred to him for his examination and opinion arising under the customs, navigation, banking, and registry laws, and in the administration of the Department. He is also charged by law with the supervision of suits and proceedings arising out of the provisions of law governing national banking associations in which the United States and any of its agents or officers are parties; also with the charge, release, and sale of lands acquired in payment of debt excepting those acquired under internal-revenue laws.

COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE.

The Commissioner makes assessment of and has general superintendence of the collection of all internal-revenue taxes, and of the enforcement of internal-revenue laws; employment of internal-revenue agents; compensation and duties of gaugers, storekeepers, and other subordinate officers; the preparation and distribution of stamps, instructions, regulations, forms, blanks, hydrometers, stationery, etc.; and analysis of foods and drugs in the District of Columbia, and payment of bounty on sugar.

The business of his office is divided into the several subject-matters and distributed among nine divisions, as follows:

Appointments.—Discipline of official force, general files, registering and copying letters, distributing mail, issuing commissions and leaves of absence, printing and distributing blanks, blank books, and stationery.

Law.—Seizures, forfeitures, compromises, suits, abatement and refunding claims, direct taxes, etc.; distraints, and lands purchased on same for (or otherwise forfeited to) the United States.

Tobacco.—Matters relating to tobacco, snuff, and cigars not in suit or in bond.

Accounts.—Revenue and disbursing accounts; allowances to collectors of internal revenue for salaries, etc.; purchase of blank books and other supplies for collectors and revenue agents; examination and reference of bills of agents, gaugers, etc.; miscellaneous claims under appropriation acts (except for abatement, refunding, and drawback); estimates for appropriations by Congress, and statistical records.

Distilled Spirits.—Matters pertaining to distilleries, distilled spirits, fermented liquors, wines, rectification, gaugers' instruments, approval of bonded warehouses, assignment of storekeepers, etc.

Stamps.—Preparation, safe-keeping, issue, and redemption of all stamps, accounts pertaining thereto, and preparation, custody, and issue of steel dies for canceling stamps.

Assessments.—Assessments, bonded accounts, warehouse reports of storekeepers and gaugers, exports, and drawbacks.

Revenue Agents.—General supervision of the work of Revenue Agents; examination and distribution of their reports; direction of their investigations and examination of their accounts. Also charged with supervision of the work incident to the collection of the tax on oleomargarine.

Chemistry.—Analysis of all samples submitted for test of products subject to the payment of tax under internal-revenue laws; supervision of chemical work in collectors' offices, and other miscellaneous scientific work.

COMMISSIONER OF NAVIGATION.

The Commissioner of Navigation is charged with general superintendence of the commercial marine and merchant seamen of the United States, except so far as supervision is lodged with other officers of the Government. He is specially charged with the decision of all questions relating to the issue of registers, enrollments, and licenses of vessels and the filing of those documents, with the supervision of laws relating to the admeasurement, letters, and numbers of vessels, and with the final decision of questions concerning the collection and refund of tonnage taxes. He is empowered to change the names of vessels, prepares annually a list of vessels of the United States, and reports annually to the Secretary of the Treasury the operations of the laws relative to navigation.

SUPERINTENDENT OF THE COAST AND GEODETIC SURVEY.

The Coast and Geodetic Survey is charged with the survey of the Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific coasts of the United States, including the coasts of Alaska; the survey of rivers to the head of tide-water or ship navigation; deep-sea soundings, temperature and current observations along the said coasts and throughout the Gulf Stream and Japan Stream flowing off from them; magnetic observations and gravity research; determinations of heights by geodetic leveling, and of geographical positions by lines of transcontinental triangulation, which, with other connecting triangulations and observations for latitude, longitude, and azimuth, furnish points of reference for State surveys and connect the work on the Atlantic coast with that on the Pacific.

Results of the survey are published in the form of annual reports, which include professional papers of value; bulletins which give information deemed important for immediate publication; notices to mariners, issued monthly; tide tables, issued annually; charts upon various scales, including harbor charts, general charts of the coast, and sailing charts; chart catalogues and Coast Pilots.

SUPERVISING INSPECTOR-GENERAL, OF STEAM VESSELS.

The Supervising Inspector-General superintends the administration of the steamboat-inspection laws, presides at the meeting of the Board of Supervising Inspectors, receives all reports, and examines all accounts of inspectors.

The Board of Supervising Inspectors meets in Washington annually, on the third Wednesday in January, to establish regulations for carrying out the provisions of the steamboat-inspection laws.

SUPERVISING SURGEON-GENERAL, MARINE-HOSPITAL, SERVICE.

The Supervising Surgeon-General is charged with the supervision of the marine hospitals and other relief stations of the service, and the care of sick and disabled seamen taken from the merchant vessels of the United States (ocean, lake, and river), and from the vessels of the Revenue-Marine and Light-House services. This supervision includes the purveying of medical and other supplies, the assignment of and orders to medical officers, the examination of requisitions, vouchers, and property returns, and all matters pertaining to the service.

Under his direction all applicants for pilots' licenses are examined for the detection of color-blindness. Ordinary seamen, on request of a master or agent, are examined physically to determine their fitness before shipment, and a like examination is made of the candidates for admission to the Revenue-Marine Service and candidates for appointment as surfmen in the United States Life-Saving Service.

He examines also and passes upon the medical certificates of claimants for pensions under the laws of the Life-Saving Service.

Under the act of April 29, 1878, he is charged with the framing of regulations for the prevention of the introduction of contagious diseases and the prevention of their spread; and under the act of August 1, 1888, he is charged with the conduct of the quarantine service of the United States. He has the direction of laboratories established to investigate the cause of contagious diseases, and publishes each week an abstract of sanitary reports received from all parts of the United States and (through the State Department) from all foreign countries.

Under the law of March 28, 1890, known as the interstate quarantine law, he is charged with preparing the rules and regulations, under direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, necessary to prevent the introduction of certain contagious diseases from one State to another, and he has also supervision of the medical inspection of alien immigrants, which, under the law of March 3, 1891, is conducted by the medical officers of the Marine-Hospital Service.

BUREAU OF IMMIGRATION.

It is the duty of the Commissioner-General of Immigration to prepare and revise all regulations pertaining to immigration and to supervise the expenditures of the appropriations for "Expenses regulating immigration" and the "Enforcement of the alien contract-labor laws," and certify same to the accounting officers of the Treasury Department. All inspection and other officers in the service after appointment will be assigned to duty by the Commissioner-General, and their official duties and conduct will be supervised by him; and all correspondence connected with immigration shall be conducted by him. All appeals from the decisions of the boards of special inquiry at the several ports, touching the right of an alien to land in the United States, shall be decided by him, subject to the approval or disapproval of the Secretary of the Treasury. He shall cause all alleged violations of the alien contract-labor laws to be investigated and submit such evidence as he may be able to obtain to the proper United States district attorney for prosecution, if deemed advisable. He shall collect and compile all statistics relative to immigration and shall make annual reports in writing of the transactions of his office to the Secretary of the Treasury.

GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT OF THE LIFE-SAVING SERVICE.

It is the duty of the General Superintendent to supervise the organization and government of the employees of the service; to prepare and revise regulations therefor as may be necessary; to supervise the expenditure of all appropriations made for the support and maintenance of the Life-Saving Service; to examine the accounts of disbursements of the district superintendents, and to certify the same to the accounting officers of the Treasury Department; to examine the property returns of the keepers of the several stations, and see that all public property thereto belonging is properly accounted for; to acquaint himself, as far as practicable, with all means employed in foreign countries which may seem to advantageously affect the interest of the service, and to cause to be properly investigated all plans, devices, and inventions for the improvement of life-saving apparatus for use at the stations which may appear to be meritorious and available; to exercise supervision over the selection of sites for new stations the establishment of which may be authorized by law, or for old ones the removal of which may be made necessary by the encroachment of the sea or by other causes; to prepare and submit to the Secretary of the Treasury estimates for the support of the service; to collect and compile the statistics of marine disasters contemplated by the act of June 20, 1874, and to submit to the Secretary of the Treasury, for transmission to Congress, an annual report of the expenditures of the moneys appropriated for the maintenance of the Life-Saving Service, and of the operations of said service during the year.

BUREAU OF STATISTICS.

The Chief of the Bureau of Statistics collects and publishes the statistics of our foreign commerce, embracing tables showing the imports and exports, respectively, by countries and customs districts; the transit trade inwards and outwards by countries and by customs districts; imported commodities warehoused, withdrawn from, and remaining in warehouse; the imports of merchandise entered for consumption, showing quantity, value, rates of duty, and amounts of duty collected on each article or class of articles; number of immigrants, their nationality, occupation, etc., arriving from foreign countries, and the number of passengers departing for foreign countries; the inward and outward movement in our foreign trade and the countries whence entered and for which cleared, distinguishing the nationalities of the foreign vessels; also special information in regard to our internal commerce.

The publications of the Bureau are as follows: Annual Report on Commerce and Navigation; Annual Report on Internal Commerce; Annual Statistical Abstract of the United States; Quarter-yearly Reports on Commerce, Navigation, and Immigration; Monthly Summary Statements of Imports and Exports; Monthly Reports of Total Values of Foreign Commerce and Immigration; Monthly Reports of Exports of Breadstuffs, of Provisions, of Petroleum, and Cotton.

The divisions of the Bureau are as follows: Division of Examination and Revision; Division of Compilation; Miscellaneous Division; Library and Files.

BUREAU OF ENGRAVING AND PRINTING.

The Bureau of Engraving and Printing designs, engraves, prints, and finishes all of the securities and other similar work of the Government printed from steel plates, embracing United States notes, bonds, and certificates, national-bank notes, internal-revenue, and postage customs stamps, Treasury drafts and checks, disbursing officers' checks, licenses, commissions, patent and pension certificates, and portraits authorized by law of deceased members of Congress and other public officers.

THE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD.

The Light-House Board has charge, under the superintendence of the Secretary of the Treasury, of all administrative duties relating to the construction and maintenance of light-houses, light-vessels, beacons, fog signals, buoys, and their appendages, and has charge of all records and property appertaining to the light-house establishment.

THE DEPARTMENT OF WAR.

SECRETARY OF WAR.

The Secretary of War is at the head of the War Department, and performs such duties as the President may enjoin upon him concerning the military service.

He has supervision of all the estimates of appropriations for the expenses of the Department, of all purchases of Army supplies, and of all expenditures for the support and transportation of the Army, and of such expenditures of a civil nature as are by law placed under his direction.

He also has supervision of the United States Military Academy at West Point; of national cemeteries; of the publication of the Official Records of the War of the Rebellion, and of the Board on Ordnance and Fortification.

He has charge of all matters relating to river and harbor improvements; the prevention of obstruction to navigation; the establishment of harbor lines, and approves the plans and location of bridges authorized by Congress to be constructed over the navigable waters of the United States.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF WAR.

The Assistant Secretary of War performs such duties in the Department of War as shall be prescribed by the Secretary or may be required by law.

CHIEF CLERK.

The Chief Clerk has charge of the official mail and correspondence, and performs such duties as are enjoined by law or assigned to him by the Secretary of War.

MILITARY BUREAUS OF THE WAR DEPARTMENT.

The chiefs of the military bureaus of the War Department are officers of the Regular Army of the United States and a part of the military establishment, viz:

The Adjutant-General promulgates all orders of a military character of the President, the Secretary of War, and the Commanding General of the Army, and conducts the correspondence between the latter and the Army; receives reports and returns pertaining to the Army; prepares commissions, appointments, and acceptances of resignations for issuance; and, under the immediate direction of the Secretary of War, has charge of the recruiting service.

The Inspector-General, with his assistants, inspects all military commands and stations, the schools of application, the military department of all colleges and schools at which officers of the Army are detailed, all depots, rendezvous, armories, arsenals, fortifications, and public works of every kind under charge of or carried on by officers of the Army; and also the money accounts of all disbursing officers of the Army.

The Quartermaster-General, aided by assistants, provides transportation for the Army; also clothing and equipage, horses, mules, and wagons, vessels, forage, stationery, and other miscellaneous quartermaster stores and property for the Army, and of clothing and equipage for the militia; constructs necessary buildings, wharves, roads, and bridges at military posts, and repairs the same; furnishes water, heating and lighting apparatus; pays guides, spies, and interpreters, and is in charge of national cemeteries.

The Commissary-General of Subsistence has administrative control of the Subsistence Department; the disbursement of its appropriations; the providing of rations and their issue to the Army; the purchase and distribution of articles authorized to be kept for sale to officers and enlisted men; the administrative examination of accounts of subsistence funds preliminary to their settlement by the proper accounting officers of the Treasury; and the examination and settlement of returns of subsistence supplies.

The Surgeon-General, under the immediate direction of the Secretary of War, is charged with the administrative duties of the Medical Department; the designation of the stations of medical officers, and the issuing of all orders and instructions relating to their professional duties. He directs as to the selection, purchase, and distribution of the medical supplies of the Army. The Army Medical Museum and the official publications of the Surgeon-General's Office are also under his direct control.

The Paymaster-General is charged with the payment of the officers and enlisted men of the Army and civil employees of the Department; with furnishing funds to his officers and seeing that they duly account for the same, and with a preliminary examination of their accounts; also with the payment of Treasury certificates for bounty, back pay, etc., and balances due deceased officers and soldiers of the Volunteer and Regular Army.

The Chief of Engineers commands the Corps of Engineers, which is charged with all duties relating to construction and repair of fortifications, whether permanent or temporary; with torpedoes for coast defense; with all works of defense; with all military roads and bridges, and with such surveys as may be required for these objects, or the movement of armies in the field. It is also charged with the river and harbor improvements, with military and geographical explorations and surveys, with the survey of the lakes, and with any other engineer work specially assigned to the corps by acts of Congress or orders of the Secretary of War.

The Chief of Ordnance commands the Ordnance Department, the duties of which consist in providing, preserving, distributing, and accounting for every description of artillery, small arms, and all the munitions of war which may be required for the fortresses of the country, the armies in the field, and for the whole body of the militia of the Union. In these duties are comprised that of determining the general principles of construction and of prescribing in detail the models and forms of all military weapons employed in war. They comprise also the duty of prescribing the regulations for the proof and inspection of all these weapons, for maintaining uniformity and economy in their fabrication, for insuring their good quality, and for their preservation and distribution.

The Judge-Advocate-General is directed by law to "receive, review, and cause to be recorded the proceedings of all courts-martial, courts of inquiry, and military commissions." He also furnishes the Secretary of War information and advice relating to lands under control of the War Department, and reports and opinions upon legal questions arising under the laws, regulations, and customs pertaining to the Army, and upon questions arising under the civil law; reports upon applications for clemency in the cases of military prisoners; examines and prepares legal papers relating to the erection of bridges over navigable waters; drafts bonds, and examines those given to the United States by disbursing officers, colleges, and others; examines, revises, and drafts charges and specifications against officers and soldiers; and also drafts and examines deeds, contracts, licenses, leases, and legal papers generally.

The Chief Signal Officer is charged with the supervision of all military signal duties, and of books, papers, and devices connected therewith, including telegraph and telephone apparatus and the necessary meteorological instruments for use on target ranges and other military uses; the construction, repair, and operation of military telegraph lines, and the duty of collecting and transmitting information for the Army by telegraph or otherwise, and all other duties usually pertaining to military signaling.

The Chief of the Record and Pension Office is charged by law with the custody of the military and hospital records of the volunteer armies and the transaction of the pension and other business of the War Department connected therewith. The work of the office embraces all subjects relating to the service of organizations, officers, and enlisted men of the volunteer armies, and includes the answer to calls from the Commissioner of Pensions, the accounting officers of the Treasury, and others for information required in the adjudication of claims against the National and State governments, the adjustment of the individual records of officers and enlisted men under the general and special legislation of Congress relating thereto, and the general correspondence of the Department relating to the volunteer forces. The records of the office include those of the late Provost-Marshal-General's Bureau and the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands; also the Confederate archives, embracing those relating to the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of the Confederate Government.

THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

The Attorney-General is the head of the Department of Justice and the chief law officer of the Government. He represents the United States in matters involving legal questions; he gives his advice and opinion, when they are required by the President or by the heads of the other Executive Departments, on questions of law arising in the administration of their respective Departments; he exercises a general superintendence and direction over United States attorneys and marshals in all judicial districts in the States and Territories; and he provides special counsel for the United States whenever required by any Department of the Government.

He is assisted by a chief clerk and other clerks and employees in the executive management of the business of the Department.

A law clerk, who is also an examiner of titles, assists the Attorney-General in the investigation of legal questions and in the preparation of opinions.

SOLICITOR-GENERAL.

The Solicitor-General assists the Attorney-General in the performance of his general duties, and by special provision of law, in the case of a vacancy in the office of Attorney-General or in his absence, exercises all these duties. Except when the Attorney-General otherwise directs, the Attorney-General and Solicitor-General conduct and argue all cases in the Supreme Court and in the Court of Claims in which the United States is interested; and, when the Attorney-General so directs, any such case in any court of the United States may be conducted and argued by the Solicitor-General; and in the same way the Solicitor-General may be sent by the Attorney-General to attend to the interests of the United States in any State court or elsewhere.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEYS-GENERAL.

Four Assistant Attorneys-General assist the Attorney-General and the Solicitor-General in the performance of their duties. Two assist in the argument of causes in the Supreme Court and in the preparation of legal opinions; one is charged with the conduct of the defense of the United States in the Court of Claims, and has six assistant attorneys to assist him; the other is charged with the defense of the Indian depredation claims.

Under the act of 1870 the different law officers of the Executive Departments exercise their functions under the supervision and control of the Attorney-General. They are the Assistant Attorney-General for the Department of the Interior, the Assistant Attorney-General for the Post-Office Department, the Solicitor of the Treasury, the Solicitor of Internal Revenue, Treasury Department, and the Solicitor for the Department of State.

THE POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL.

The Postmaster-General has the direction and management of the Post-Office Department. He appoints all officers and employees of the Department, except the four Assistant Postmasters-General, who are appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate; appoints all postmasters whose compensation does not exceed $1,000; makes postal treaties with foreign governments, by and with the advice and consent of the President, awards and executes contracts, and directs the management of the domestic and foreign mail service.

FIRST ASSISTANT POSTMASTER-GENERAL.

The First Assistant Postmaster-General has charge of the following divisions, viz: Salary and Allowance Division.—The duty of readjusting the salaries of postmasters and the consideration of allowances for rent, fuel, lights, clerk hire, and other expenditures.

Free Delivery.—The duty of preparing cases for the inauguration of the system in cities, the appointment of letter carriers, and the general supervision of the system.

Division of Post-Office Supplies.—The duty of purchasing stationery, blanks and books, wrapping paper, twine, letter balances, and canceling stamps, and supplying the Department and post-offices with such quantities of these supplies as they are upon requisition entitled to receive.

Money-Order Division.—Under the immediate direction of the Superintendent, who has supervision and control thereof, including the domestic money-order business and the superintendence of the international money-order correspondence with foreign countries, as well as the preparation of postal conventions for the exchange of money orders therewith, and the conduct of correspondence relating to these subjects.

Dead Letter Office.—Under the immediate direction of the Superintendent, who is charged with the treatment of all unmailable and undelivered mail matter which is sent to it for disposition; the enforcement of the prompt sending of such matter according to regulations; the duty of noting and correcting errors of postmasters connected with the delivery or withholding of mail matter; the investigation, by correspondence, of complaints made with reference thereto; the verification and allowance of claims for credit by postmasters for postage-due stamps affixed to undelivered matter; the examination and forwarding or return of all letters which have failed of delivery; the inspection and return to the country of origin of undelivered foreign matter; recording and restoration to owners of letters and parcels which contain valuable inclosures; care and disposition of all money, negotiable paper, and other valuable articles found in undelivered matter and correspondence, both foreign and domestic, relating to these subjects.

Correspondence Division.—To this division are referred inquiries received from postmasters and others relative to the construction of postal laws and regulations, disputes regarding the delivery of mail matter, and all correspondence of a miscellaneous character.

SECOND ASSISTANT POSTMASTER-GENERAL.

The Second Assistant Postmaster-General has charge of the transportation of all mails. His office embraces four divisions and two offices, viz:

The Contract Division prepares all advertisements inviting proposals for star, steamboat, and mail-messenger service, receives the proposals, prepares orders for the award of contracts, attends to the execution of contracts, prepares cases and orders for the establishment of new service or changes in existing service, attends to all correspondence relating thereto, and prepares statistics and reports of mail service required by law.

The Division of Inspection is charged with the examination of monthly and special reports of postmasters as to performance of mail service by contractors and carriers; the preparation of cases and orders for deductions for nonperformance of service and for the imposition of fines for delinquencies of contractors and carriers, of authorization for payment of railway postal clerks, of certifications of service to the Sixth Auditor, and the correspondence relative to nonperformance of contract requirements for carrying the mails.

The Railway Adjustment Division prepares cases authorizing the transportation of mails by railroads, the establishment of railway postal-car service, and changes in existing service; prepares orders and instructions for the weighing of mails, receives the returns and computes basis of pay therefrom; prepares cases for the adjustment of allowances to railroads for carrying the mails and for postal cars, and attends to all correspondence relating to these matters.

The Mail Equipment Division is charged with the preparation of advertisements inviting proposals for furnishing mail bags, mail locks and keys, label cases, mail-bag cord fasteners, and mail-bag catchers; the receipt of proposals and the preparation of contracts therefor, the issuing of such articles for the use of the service, the repairing of the same, the keeping of records and accounts, and the preparation of all correspondence incident to these duties.

The Office of Railway Mail Service has charge of the railway mail service and the railway post-office clerks, prepares for the Second Assistant Postmaster-General cases for the appointment, removal, promotion, and reduction of said clerks, conducts the correspondence, and issues the orders relative to moving the mails on railroad trains; has charge of the dispatch and distribution of mail matter in railway post-office cars and post-offices, and conducts the weighing of mails when ordered.

The Office of Foreign Mails has charge of all foreign postal arrangements (except those relating to the money-order system), including the preparation of postal conventions and the regulations for their execution, as well as the consideration of questions arising under them; and conducts the correspondence relative thereto both with foreign governments and private citizens. It also has the supervision of the ocean mail steamship service in all its details, including the settlement of the accounts with steamship companies for the conveyance of mails from the United States to foreign countries.

THIRD ASSISTANT POSTMASTER-GENERAL.

The Third Assistant Postmaster-General has charge of the Finance Office, etc., embracing the following five divisions:

Division of Finance.—The duty of issuing warrants and drafts in payment of balances reported by the Auditor to be due to mail contractors or other persons and the superintendence of accounts between the Department and the Treasurer and Assistant Treasurers and special designated depositories of the United States.

Division of Postage Stamps and Stamped Envelopes.—The issuing of postage stamps, stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, and postal cards; also the supplying of postmasters with envelopes for their official use, including registered-package envelopes.

Division of Registered Letters.—The duty of preparing instructions for the guidance of postmasters relative to registered letters, and all correspondence connected therewith; also the compilation of statistics as to the transaction of the business.

Division of Mail Classification.—The duty of passing upon the applications of publishers for the entry of newspapers and periodicals into the mails as second-class matter, and generally the control of all business relating to the rates of postage and the classification of mail matter.

Division of Files, Mails, etc.—The duty of receiving, distributing, and indexing all papers coming into the office, of dispatching and recording all papers sent from the office, and of keeping and attending to the office files.

The office of the Third Assistant Postmaster-General has also charge of the Special Delivery System.

FOURTH ASSISTANT POSTMASTER-GENERAL.

The Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General has charge of the Bureau including the Divisions of Appointments, of Bonds and Commissions, and of Post-Office Inspectors and Mail Depredations.

Division of Appointments.—The duty of preparing all cases for establishment, discontinuance, and change of name or site of post-offices, and for the appointment of all postmasters, and attending to all correspondence consequent thereto.

Division of Bonds and Commissions.—The duty of receiving and recording appointments; sending out papers for postmasters and their assistants to qualify; receiving, entering, and filing their bonds (and approval of same) and oaths, and issuing the commissions for postmasters.

Division of Post-Office Inspectors and Mail Depredations.—To this office is intrusted the general supervision of the work of the post-office inspectors, and the consideration and adjustment of their accounts for salary and expenses. To it are referred all complaints of losses or irregularities in the mails and all reported violations of the postal laws,

THE DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY.

MARINE CORPS.

The Commandant of the Marine Corps is responsible to the Secretary of the Navy for the general efficiency and discipline of the corps; makes such distribution of officers and men for duty at the several shore stations as shall appear to him to be most advantageous for the interests of the service; furnishes guards for vessels of the Navy, according to the authorized scale of allowance; under the direction of the Secretary of the Navy, issues orders for the movement of officers and troops, and such other orders and instructions for their guidance as may be necessary; and has charge and exercises general supervision and control of the recruiting service of the corps, and of the necessary expenses thereof, including the establishment of recruiting offices.

THE DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

The Secretary of the Interior is charged with the supervision of public business relating to patents for inventions; pensions and bounty lands; the public lands and surveys; the Indians; education; railroads; the Geological Survey; the census; the Hot Springs Reservation, Arkansas; Yellowstone National Park, Wyoming, and the Yosemite, Sequoia, and General Grant parks, California; distribution of appropriations for agricultural and mechanical colleges in the States and Territories; the custody and distribution of certain public documents; and custody of certain hospitals and eleemosynary institutions in the District of Columbia. He also exercises certain powers and duties in relation to the Territories of the United States.

FIRST ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

The First Assistant Secretary of the Interior examines charges against officials and employees; instructs Indian inspectors and mine inspectors; supervises open-market purchases of Indian supplies, and, generally, matters pertaining to the Indians; supervises business relating to distribution of certain public documents and documents from the Office of Education, and matters relating to the Government Hospital for the Insane, Columbia Institution for Deaf and Dumb, education of the blind and of feeble-minded children of the District of Columbia, the national parks named in the preceding paragraph, the Hot Springs in Arkansas, and supervises the disbursing of the fund for a more complete endowment of agricultural and mechanical colleges in the States and Territories; and acts as Secretary in the absence of that officer.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

The Assistant Secretary of the Interior considers appeals from the Commissioner of Pensions and questions relating to violations of pension laws, and appeals from the administrative action of the Commissioner of Patents; has general supervision of the business of the Board of Pension Appeals; countersigns letters patent; examines official bonds and contracts as to their correctness; has the admission and disbarment from practice of attorneys and agents, and acts as Secretary in the absence of both that officer and the First Assistant Secretary.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

The Assistant Attorney-General is the chief law officer of this Department. When requested he advises the Secretary and Assistant Secretaries upon questions of law arising in the administration of the Department. All appeals from the General Land Office are sent to his office for consideration. Oral arguments are heard by him in the more important cases, or by brief; and decisions are prepared under his supervision for the signature of the Secretary or First Assistant Secretary, as the case may be. The Assistant Attorney-General is aided in this and his other work by seventeen assistant attorneys.

CHIEF CLERK.

The Chief Clerk has the general supervision of the clerks and employees; of the order of business, records, and correspondence of the Secretary's Office; of all expenditures from appropriations for contingent expenses, stationery, and printing for the Department and bureaus; enforcement of the general regulations of the Department; also the superintendence of buildings occupied by the Interior Department.

COMMISSIONER OF PATENTS.

The Commissioner of Patents is charged with the administration of the patent laws, and supervises all matters relating to the issue of letters patent for new and useful discoveries, inventions, and improvements, and the registration of trade-marks and labels. He is aided by an Assistant Commissioner, chief clerk, three examiners-in-chief, an examiner of interferences, and thirty-two principal examiners.

COMMISSIONER OF PENSIONS.

The Commissioner of Pensions supervises the examination and adjudication of all claims arising under laws passed by Congress granting bounty land or pension on account of service in the Army or Navy during the Revolutionary war and all subsequent wars in which the United States has been engaged. He is aided by two Deputy Commissioners and the chief clerk of the Bureau, each of whom has supervision over business arising in divisions of the Bureau assigned, under order of the Commissioner, to his immediate charge.

COMMISSIONER OF THE GENERAL LAND OFFICE.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office is charged with the survey, management, and sale of the public domain, and the issuing of titles therefor, whether derived from confirmations of grants made by former governments, by sales, donations, or grants for schools, railroads, military bounties, or public improvements. He is aided by an Assistant Commissioner and chief clerk.

COMMISSIONER OF INDIAN AFFAIRS.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs has charge of the several tribes of Indians in the States and Territories. He issues instructions to and receives reports from agents, special agents, and school superintendents; superintends the purchase, transportation, and distribution of presents and annuities; and reports annually the relations of the Government with each tribe. He is aided by an Assistant Commissioner, who under the law also performs the duties of chief clerk.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION.

The duties of the Commissioner of Education are to collect such statistics and facts as shall show the condition and progress of education in the several States and Territories, and to diffuse such information respecting the organization and management of schools and school systems and methods of teaching as shall aid the people of the United States in the establishment and maintenance of efficient school systems, and otherwise promote the cause of education throughout the country.

COMMISSIONER OF RAILROADS.

The Commissioner of Railroads is charged with the duty of prescribing a system of reports to be rendered to him by the railroad companies whose roads are in whole or in part west, north, or south of the Missouri River, and to which the United States have granted any loan or credit or subsidy in bonds or lands; to examine the books and accounts of each of said railroad companies once in each fiscal year, and at such other times as may be deemed by him necessary to determine the correctness of any report received from them; to assist the Government directors of any of said railway companies in all matters which come under their cognizance, whenever they may officially request such assistance, to see that the laws relating to said companies are enforced; to furnish such information to the several departments of the Government in regard to tariffs for freight and passengers and in regard to the accounts of said railroad companies as may be by them required, or, in the absence of any request therefor, as he may deem expedient for the interest of the Government; and to make an annual report to the Secretary of the Interior on the 1st day of November on the condition of each of said railroad companies, their road, accounts, and affairs, for the fiscal year ending June 30 immediately preceding.

DIRECTOR OF THE GEOLOGICAL SURVEY.

The Director of the Geological Survey has charge of the classification of the public lands and examination of the geological structure, mineral resources, and products of the national domain.

SUPERINTENDENT OF THE CENSUS.

The Superintendent of the Census supervises the taking of the census of the United States every tenth year, and the subsequent arrangement, compilation, and publication of the statistics collected.

ELEVENTH CENSUS.

In accordance with an act of Congress approved March 1, 1889, entitled "An act to provide for taking the Eleventh and subsequent censuses," the Superintendent of the Census, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, caused to be taken as of the date of June 1, 1890, a census of the population, wealth, and industry of each State and Territory, and of the District of Columbia. He also, at the time of the general enumeration herein provided for, collected the statistics of and relating to the recorded indebtedness of private corporations and individuals, and collected from official sources information relating to animals not on farms. The population schedules included an inquiry as to the number of negroes, mulattoes, quadroons, and octo-rooms. There were also collected statistics of the population, industries, and resources of the District of Alaska. Special agents were employed to make an enumeration of all Indians living within the jurisdiction of the United States, and to gather such information as to their condition as was obtainable, classifying them as Indians taxed and Indians not taxed. Special agents were also employed to investigate and ascertain the statistics of the manufacturing, railroad, fishing, mining, cattle, and other industries of the country, and the statistics of telegraph, express, transportation, and insurance companies.

The volumes published or to be published in connection with the Census relate to population, to social statistics, to the products of manufactories, mining, and agriculture, to mortality and vital statistics, to valuations and public indebtedness, to recorded indebtedness, and to statistics relating to railroad corporations, incorporated express, telegraph, and insurance companies, and churches; in all, twenty-five volumes.

These volumes are either now ready for distribution, or in the hands of the Printer, and may be looked for at any time.

In addition to the above, Parts I and II of the Compendium and the first and second editions of the Abstract of the Census have been issued. Volume III of the Compendium and the Statistical Atlas are yet in the Printer's hands.

The provision of the law requiring the publication of the names, etc., of the survivors of the late war having been repealed, the information that had been gathered was turned over to the Pension Bureau.

The work of the Eleventh Census is fast being completed by the Census Division of the Interior Department, under the direction of the Commissioner of Labor.

THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE.

The Secretary of Agriculture is charged with the supervision of all public business relating to the agricultural industry. He appoints all the officers and employees of the Department, with the exception of the Assistant Secretary and the Chief of the Weather Bureau, who are appointed by the President, and directs the management of all the divisions, offices, and bureaus embraced in the Department. He exercises advisory supervision over the agricultural experiment stations deriving support from the national Treasury, and has control of the quarantine stations for imported cattle, and of interstate quarantine rendered necessary by contagious cattle diseases.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

The Assistant Secretary performs such duties as may be required by law or prescribed by the Secretary. To his office has been assigned the control and direction of the scientific policy and operations of the following divisions and offices: The Divisions of Botany, Vegetable Physiology and Pathology, Pomology, Chemistry, Biological Survey, Soils, and Agrostology, and Entomology; the Offices of Experiment Stations, and Fiber Investigation, and the Department Museum. All questions relating to the scientific operations and policy of the above-mentioned divisions, but involving questions of administrative policy, while primarily matters for the consideration of the Assistant Secretary, are submitted to the Secretary for his approval before final action is taken.

CHIEF CLERK.

The Chief Clerk has the general supervision of the clerks and employees; of the order of business, records, and correspondence of the Secretary's office; of all expenditures from appropriations for contingent expenses, stationery, etc.; of the enforcement of the general regulations of the Department; and of the buildings occupied by the Department of Agriculture.

BUREAUS AND DIVISIONS.

The Chief of the Weather Bureau, under the direction of the Secretary of Agriculture, has charge of the forecasting of weather; the issue of storm warnings; the display of weather and flood signals for the benefit of agriculture, commerce, and navigation; the gauging and reporting of rivers; the maintenance and operation of seacoast telegraph lines, and the collection and transmission of marine intelligence for the benefit of commerce and navigation; the reporting of temperature and rainfall conditions for the cotton interests; the display of frost and cold-wave signals; the distribution of meteorological information in the interests of agriculture and commerce, and the taking of such meteorological observations as may be necessary to establish and record the climatic conditions of the United States or as are essential for the proper execution of the foregoing duties.

The Bureau of Animal Industry makes investigations as to the existence of contagious pleuropneumonia and other dangerous communicable diseases of live stock; superintends the measures for their extirpation, makes original investigations as to the nature and prevention of such diseases, and reports on the condition and means of improving the animal industries of the country. It also has charge of the inspection of import and export animals, of the inspection of vessels for the transportation of export cattle, and of the quarantine stations for imported neat cattle; supervises the interstate movement of cattle, and inspects live stock and their products slaughtered for food consumption.

The Statistician collects information as to crop production and the numbers and status of farm animals, through a corps of county and township correspondents and State agents, and obtains similar information from foreign countries through its special agent, assisted by consular, agricultural, and commercial authorities. He records, tabulates, and coordinates statistics of agricultural production, distribution, and consumption, the authorized data of Governments, institutes, societies, boards of trade, and individual experts; and issues a monthly crop report for the information of producers and consumers.

The Division of Accounts and Disbursements audits and pays all accounts and adjusts claims against the Department; decides questions involving the expenditure of public funds; prepares advertisements, schedules, and contracts for annual supplies, leases, and agreements; issues requisitions for the purchase of supplies, requests for passenger and freight transportation; prepares the annual estimates of appropriations, and attends to all other business relating to the financial interests of the Department.

The Division of Chemistry makes investigations of the methods proposed for the analyses of soils, fertilizers, and agricultural products, and such analyses as pertain in general to the interests of agriculture. It investigates the composition and adulteration of foods and the composition of field products in relation to their nutritive value and to the constituents which they derive from the soil, fertilizers, and the air. It cooperates with the chemists of the agricultural experiment stations in all matters pertaining to the relations of chemistry to agricultural interests.

The Office of Experiment Stations represents the Department in its relations to the agricultural colleges and experiment stations, which are now in operation in all the States and Territories. It seeks to promote the interests of agricultural education and investigation throughout the United States. It collects and disseminates general information regarding the colleges and stations, and publishes accounts of agricultural investigations at home and abroad. It also indicates lines of inquiry, aids in the conduct of cooperative experiments, reports upon the expenditures and work of the stations, and in general furnishes them with such advice and assistance as will best promote the purposes for which they were established. It is also charged with investigations on the nutritive value and economy of human foods.

The Entomologist obtains and disseminates information regarding insects injurious to vegetation; investigates insects sent him in order to give appropriate remedies; conducts investigations of this character in different parts of the country, and mounts and arranges specimens for illustrative and museum purposes.

The Division of Biological Survey studies the geographic distribution of animals and plants, and maps the natural life zones of the country; it also investigates the economic relations of birds and mammals, and recommends measures for the preservation of beneficial and the destruction of injurious species.

The Division of Forestry is occupied with experiments, investigations, and reports dealing with the subject of forestry, with the distribution of seeds of valuable economic trees, and with the dissemination of information upon forestry matters.

The Division of Botany investigates botanical agricultural problems, including the purity and value of agricultural seeds; methods of controlling the spread of weeds or preventing their introduction into this country; the dangers, effects, and antidotes for poisonous plants; the native plant resources of the country; and other subjects of economic botany.

The Division of Agrostology is charged with the investigation of the natural history, geographic distribution, and uses of grasses and forage plants, their adaptation to special soils and climates, the introduction of promising native and foreign kinds into cultivation, and the preparation of publications and correspondence relative to these plants.

The Pomologist collects and distributes information in regard to the pomological industry of the United States; investigates the habits and peculiar qualities of fruits, their adaptability to various soils and climates and conditions of culture, and introduces new and untried fruits from foreign countries.

The Division of Vegetable Physiology and Pathology has for its object a study of the normal and abnormal life processes of plants. It seeks, by investigations in the laboratory and experiments in the field, to determine the causes of disease and the best means of preventing the same. It studies plant physiology in its bearing on pathology.

The Office of Fiber Investigations collects and disseminates information regarding the cultivation of textile plants, directs experiments in the culture of new and hitherto unused plants, and investigates the merits of new machines and processes for textile manufactures.

The Office of Road Inquiry collects information concerning the systems of road management throughout the United States, conducts investigations regarding the best method of road making, and prepares publications on this subject.

The Division of Publications exercises general supervision of the Department printing and illustrations, and has charge of the distribution of all Department publications with the exception of those turned over by law to the Superintendent of Documents for sale at the price affixed by him; it issues, in the form of press notices, official information of interest to agriculturists, and distributes to agricultural publications and writers synopses of Department publications.

The Division of Gardens and Grounds is charged with the care and ornamentation of the park surrounding the Department buildings, and with the duties connected with the conservatories and gardens for testing and propagating exotic and economic plants.

THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

COMMISSIONER OF LABOR.

The Department of Labor was established by act of Congress approved June 13, 1888. It is placed in charge of a Commissioner of Labor, who is directed to acquire and diffuse among the people of the United States useful information on subjects connected with labor in the most general and comprehensive sense of that word, and especially upon its relations to capital, the hours of labor, the earnings of laboring men and women, and the means of promoting their material, social, intellectual, and moral prosperity. He is also especially charged, in accordance with the general design and duties prescribed by the law, at as early a date as possible and whenever industrial changes shall make it essential, to ascertain the cost of producing articles, at the time dutiable in the United States, in leading countries where such articles are produced, by fully specified units of production, and under a classification showing the different elements of cost of such articles of production, including wages paid in such industries, etc.

It is also the duty of the Commissioner to ascertain and report as to the effect of the customs laws upon the currency and on the agricultural industry, especially as to their effect on the mortgage indebtedness of farmers; what articles are controlled by trusts or other combinations of capital, business operations, or of labor, and what effect such trusts or other combinations of capital, business operations, or of labor have on production and prices.

The Commissioner is also to establish a system of reports by which, at intervals of not less than two years, he can ascertain the general condition, so far as production is concerned, of the leading industries of the country. He is also especially charged to investigate the causes of and facts relating to all controversies and disputes between employers and employees as they may occur, and which may happen to interfere with the welfare of the people of the different States. He may obtain information upon the various subjects committed to him, and, as he may deem desirable, from different foreign countries. He is to make a report annually in writing to the President and Congress of the information collected and collated by him, and is authorized to make special reports on particular subjects whenever required to do so by the President or either House of Congress, or when he shall think the subject in his charge requires it.

He is also authorized, by act of March 2, 1895, to publish a bulletin of the Department of Labor as to the condition of labor in this and other countries, condensations of State and foreign labor reports, facts as to conditions of employment, and such other facts as may be deemed of value to the industrial interests of the country; and there shall be printed one edition of not exceeding 10,000 copies of each issue of said bulletin for distribution by the Department of Labor.

This bulletin will at present be a bimonthly publication of about 100 pages, the first issue being for November, 1895.

THE UNITED STATES CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

The purpose of the civil-service act, as declared in its title, is "to regulate and improve the civil service of the United States." It provides for the appointment of three Commissioners, a chief examiner, a secretary, and other employees, and makes it the duty of the Commission to aid the President, as he may request, in preparing suitable rules for carrying the act into effect; to make regulations for and control the examinations provided for, and supervise and control the records of the same; and to make investigations and report upon all matters touching the enforcement and effect of the rules and regulations.

The service classified under the act, and to which it and the rules apply, is described in Rule III as follows:

1. All that part of the executive civil service of the United States which has been or may hereafter be classified under the civil-service act shall be arranged in branches as follows: The Departmental Service, the Custom-House Service, the Post-Office Service, the Government Printing Service, and the Internal-Revenue Service.

2. The Departmental Service shall include officers and employees as follows, except those in the service of the Government Printing Office and in the service of the several custom-houses, post-offices, and internal-revenue districts.

- (a) All officers and employees of whatever designation, except persons merely employed as laborers or workmen and persons whose appointments are subject to confirmation by the Senate, however or for whatever purpose employed, whether compensated by a fixed salary or otherwise, who are serving in or on detail from—

The several Executive Departments, the commissions, and offices in the District of Columbia.

The Railway Mail Service.

The Indian Service.

The several pension agencies.

The Steamboat-Inspection Service.

The Marine-Hospital Service.

The Light-House Service.

The Life-Saving Service.

The several mints and assay offices.

The Revenue-Cutter Service.

The force employed under custodians of public buildings.

The several subtreasuries.

The Engineer Department at large.

The Ordnance Department at large.

(b) All executive officers and employees outside of the District of Columbia not covered in (a), of whatever designation, except persons merely employed as laborers or workmen and persons whose appointments are subject to confirmation by the Senate, whether compensated by fixed salary, or otherwise—

Who are serving in a clerical capacity, or whose duties are in whole or in part of a clerical nature.

Who are serving in the capacity of watchman or messenger.

Who are serving in the capacity of physician, hospital steward, nurse, or whose duties are of a medical nature.

Who are serving in the capacity of draftsman, civil engineer, steam engineer, electrical engineer, computer, or fireman.

Who are in the service of the Supervising Architect's Office in the capacity of superintendent of construction, superintendent of repair, or foreman.

Who are in the service of the Treasury Department in any capacity.

Who are employed in the Department of Justice under the annual appropriation for the investigation of official acts, records, and accounts of officers of the courts, and all officers and employees in the penitentiary service who are by law subject to classification.

3. The Custom-House Service shall include such officers and employees as have been, or may hereafter be, classified under the civil-service act who are serving in any customs district whose officers and employees number as many as five. And whenever in any customs district whose officers and employees number less than five, the number of officers and employees shall be increased to as many as five, the Secretary of the Treasury shall at once notify the Commission of such increase, and the officers and employees of said district shall be included within the classified service from the date of said increase.

4. The Post-Office Service shall include the officers and employees in any free-delivery post-office who have been or may hereafter be classified under the civil-service act. And whenever the free-delivery system shall be established in any post-office the Postmaster-General shall at once notify the Commission of such establishment, and the officers or employees of said office shall be included within the classified service from the date of such establishment; and whenever, by order of the Postmaster-General, any post-office shall be consolidated with and made a part of a free-delivery post-office, the Postmaster-General shall at once notify the Commission of such consolidation, and from the date of said order the employees of the office thus made a part of the free-delivery office whose names appear on the roster of the Post-Office Department shall be employees of said free-delivery office, and the person holding, on the date of said order, the position of postmaster at the office thus made a part of said free-delivery office may be made an employee in said free-delivery office and may at the time of classification be assigned to any position therein and given any appropriate designation which the Postmaster-General may direct.

5. The Government Printing Service shall include the officers and employees in the Government Printing Office, who have been or may hereafter be classified under the civil-service act.

6. The Internal Revenue Service shall include the officers and employees in any internal revenue district who have been or may hereafter be classified under the civil-service act.

7. All officers and employees who have heretofore been classified under the civil-service act shall be considered as still classified and subject to the provisions of these rules.

8. The following-mentioned positions or employees shall not be subject to the provisions of these rules:

(a) Any position filled by a person whose place of private business is conveniently located for his performance of the duties of said position, or any position filled by a person remunerated in one sum both for services rendered therein and for necessary rent, fuel, and lights furnished for the performance of the duties thereof: Provided, That in either case the performance of the duties of said position requires only a portion of the time and attention of the occupant, paying him a compensation not exceeding, for his personal salary only, $300 per annum, and permitting of his pursuing other regular business or occupation.

(b) Any person in the military or naval service of the United States who is detailed for the performance of civil duties.

(c) Any person employed in a foreign country under the State Department or temporarily employed in a confidential capacity in a foreign country.

(d) Any position whose duties are of a quasi-military or quasi-naval character and for the performance of whose duties a person is enlisted for a term of years.

The following are excepted from examination under Rule VI:

DEPARTMENTAL SERVICE.

(a) Private secretaries or confidential clerks (not exceeding two) to the President or to the head of each of the eight Executive Departments.

(b) Indians employed in the Indian service at large, except those employed as superintendents, teachers, teachers of industries, kindergartners, and physicians.

(c) Attorneys or assistant attorneys in any department whose main duties are connected with the management of cases in court.

CUSTOM-HOUSE SERVICE.

(a) One cashier in each customs district.

(b) One chief or principal deputy or assistant collector in each customs district whose employees number as many as 150.

POST-OFFICE SERVICE.

(a) One assistant postmaster, or chief assistant to the postmaster, of whatever designation, at each post-office.

(b) One cashier of each first-class post-office when employed under the roster title of cashier only.

INTERNAL-REVENUE SERVICE.

One employee in each internal-revenue district, who shall act as cashier or chief deputy or assistant collector, as may be determined by the Treasury Department.

THE COURT OF CLAIMS.

This court was established by act of Congress, February 24, 1855 (10 Stat. L., 612). It has general jurisdiction of all "claims founded upon the Constitution of the United States or any law of Congress, except for pensions, or upon any regulation of an Executive Department, or upon any contract, expressed or implied, with the Government of the United States, or for damages, liquidated or unliquidated, in cases not sounding in tort, in respect of which claims the party would be entitled to redress against the United States, either in a court of law, equity, or admiralty, if the United States were suable, except claims growing out of the late civil war and commonly known as war claims," and certain rejected claims.

It has jurisdiction also of claims of like character which may be referred to it by any Executive Department, involving disputed facts or controverted questions of law, where the amount in controversy exceeds $3,000, or where the decision will affect a class of cases or furnish a precedent for the future action of any Executive Department in the adjustment of a class of cases, or where any authority, right, privilege, or exemption is claimed or denied under the Constitution. In all the above-mentioned cases the court, when it finds for the claimant, may enter judgment against the United States, payable out of the public Treasury. An appeal, only upon questions of law, lies to the Supreme Court on the part of the defendants in all cases, and on the part of the claimants when the amount in controversy exceeds $3,000. The findings of fact by the Court of Claims are final and not subject to review by the Supreme Court.

By the act of March 3, 1883, chapter 116 (22 Stat. L., 485, and 1 Supplement to R. S., 2d ed., p. 403), called the "Bowman Act," the head of an Executive Department may refer to the court any "claim or matter" pending in his Department involving controverted questions of fact or law. The court is required to find the facts and its conclusions of law and to report the same to the Department for its guidance and action. The same act authorizes either House of Congress or any of its committees to refer to the court any "claim or matter" involving the investigation and determination of facts, the court to find the facts and report the same to Congress for such action thereon as may there be determined. This act is extended by act of March 2, 1887, chapter 359 (24 Stat. L., 505, and 1 Supplement to R. S., 2d ed., p. 559).

There is a statute of limitations which prevents parties from bringing actions on their own motion beyond six years after the cause of action accrued, but the Departments may refer claims at any time, if they were pending therein within the six years. The only limitation under the Bowman Act is that the court shall have no jurisdiction of any claim barred before the passage of the act by any then existing provision of law.

By act of January 20, 1885 (23 Stat. L., 283, and 1 Supplement to R. S., 2d ed., p. 471), Congress gave to the court jurisdiction over "claims to indemnity upon the French Government arising out of illegal captures, detentions, seizures, condemnations, and confiscations prior to the ratification of the convention between the United States and the French Republic concluded on the 30th day of September, 1800." The time of filing claims is limited to two years from the passage of the act, and all claims not presented within that time are forever barred. The court finds the facts and the law, and reports the same in each case to Congress.

By act of March 3, 1891, chapter 538 (26 Stat. L., 851, and Supplement to R. S., 2d ed., p. 913), the court is vested with jurisdiction of certain Indian depredation claims.

There are five judges, who sit together in the hearing of cases, the concurrence of three of whom is necessary for the decision of any case.

The court sits at Washington, D. C., in the Department of Justice Building, 1509 Pennsylvania avenue, on the first Monday in December each year, and continues into the following summer and until all cases ready for trial are disposed of. Cases may be commenced and entered at any time, whether the court be in session or not.

THE UNITED STATES COMMISSION OF FISH AND FISHERIES.

(Northwest corner of Sixth and B streets SW.)

The United States Commission of Fish and Fisheries was established by joint resolution of Congress approved February 9, 1871. It is placed in charge of a Commissioner of Fish and Fisheries, who is required to be a person of proved scientific and practical acquaintance with the fish and fisheries of the sea, coast, and inland waters. Reports are made annually to Congress.

The scope of the work of the Commission covers (1) the propagation of useful food fishes, including lobsters, oysters, and other shellfish, and their distribution to suitable waters; (2) the inquiry into the causes of decrease of food fishes in the lakes, rivers, and coast waters of the United States, the study of the waters of the interior in the interest of fish culture, and the investigation of the fishing grounds of the Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific coasts, with the view of determining their food resources and the development of the commercial fisheries; (3) the collection and compilation of the statistics of the fisheries and the study of their methods and relations.

In the prosecution of its work the Commission has 22 stations, situated in different parts of the country, 4 fish-distributing cars, 2 steam vessels, and 1 sailing vessel.

THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

This Commission, appointed under "An act to regulate commerce," approved February 4, 1887, has authority to inquire into the management of the business of all common carriers who are subject to the provisions of the act. These are all which are "engaged in the transportation of passengers or property wholly by railroad, or partly by railroad and partly by water when both are used, under a common control, management, or arrangement, for a continuous carriage or shipment, from one State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia to any other State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, or from any place in the United States to an adjacent foreign country, or from any place in the United States through a foreign country to any other place in the United States, and also in the transportation in like manner of property shipped from any place in the United States to a foreign country and carried from such place to a port of transshipment, or shipped from a foreign country to any place in the United States and carried to such place from a port of entry either in the United States or an adjacent foreign country." It has jurisdiction generally over rates on interstate traffic, to pass upon their reasonableness and justice, to decide questions of unjust discrimination and of undue preference, to prescribe the publicity to be given to joint tariffs, and to institute and carry on proceedings for the enforcement of the provisions of the law. It has power to call for reports, to require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers, to hear complaints of a violation of the act made against any such carrier, and to determine what reparation shall be made to a party wronged; to institute inquiries on its own motion or at the request of State railroad commissions, and to report thereon; and it is required to make an annual report, which shall be transmitted to Congress. It is also empowered in special cases to authorize any such common carrier to charge less for a longer distance than for a shorter over the same line, and to prescribe the extent to which the carrier may be relieved from the "long and short haul clause" of said act. The Commission also appoints a secretary and clerks, whose duties are not specifically defined by the act.

THE GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE.

The Public Printer has charge of all business relating to the public printing and binding. He appoints the officers and employees of the Government Printing Office, and purchases all necessary machinery and material.

The Chief Clerk has general supervision of the clerks and clerical work of the office. He conducts the correspondence relating to public business, and performs such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Public Printer.

The Foreman of Printing has charge of all matter which is to be printed. His department consists of the following divisions: The Document, Job, Specification, Press, Folding, Stereotype, and Congressional Record rooms, as well as the various branch offices.

The Foreman of Binding has charge of the Bindery, in which division all work requiring binding, ruling, or marbling is executed. The binderies of the branch offices are under his supervision.

THE BOARD ON GEOGRAPHIC NAMES.

(Organized September 4, 1890.)

That uniform usage in regard to geographic nomenclature and orthography shall obtain throughout the Executive Departments of the Government, and particularly upon maps and charts issued by the various Departments and Bureaus, this Board is constituted. To it shall be referred all unsettled questions concerning geographic names which arise in the Departments, and the decisions of the Board are to be accepted by the Departments as the standard authority in such matters.

THE BUREAU OF THE AMERICAN REPUBLICS.

The Bureau of the American Republics was established under the recommendation of the late International American Conference, for the prompt collection and distribution of commercial information concerning the American Republics. It publishes translations of the tariffs of the countries of Latin America reduced to the United States equivalents; also handbooks of these countries, and a monthly bulletin containing the latest information respecting their resources, commerce, and general features. Replies are also furnished to inquiries in relation to the commercial and other affairs of the countries, and items of news giving recent laws of general interest, development of railways, agriculture, mines, manufactures, shipping, etc., are given to the press. The Bureau is sustained by contributions from the several American Republics in proportion to their population.

THE INTERCONTINENTAL RAILWAY COMMISSION.

This Commission was organized for the examination of the possible routes and preparation of reports on their length, cost, and advantages, together with the conduct of proper surveys for an intercontinental railway to connect the United States of America and the other Republics of the American Continent.

THE JUDICIARY.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

(In Capitol Building.)

MELVILLE WESTON FULLER, Chief Justice of the United States, was born in Augusta, Me., February 11, 1833; was graduated from Bowdoin College in 1853; studied law, attended a course of lectures at Harvard Law School, and was admitted to the bar in 1855; formed a law partnership in Augusta, Me., and was an associate editor of a Democratic paper called The Age; in 1856 became president of the common council, and served as city solicitor; removed to Chicago, Ill., in 1856, where he practiced law until appointed Chief Justice; in 1862 was a member of the State constitutional convention; was a member of the State legislature from 1863 to 1865; was a delegate to the Democratic national conventions of 1864, 1872, 1876, and 1880; the degree of LL. D. was conferred upon him by the Northwestern University and by Bowdoin College in 1888, and by Harvard in 1890; was appointed Chief Justice April 30, 1888, confirmed July 20, 1888, and took the oath of office October 8, same year.

STEPHEN JOHNSON FIELD, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, was born at Haddam, Conn., November 4, 1816; removed with his family in 1819 to Stockbridge, Mass., where he spent ten years of his boyhood; in 1829 accompanied his sister to Asia Minor, her husband, Rev. Josiah Brewer, having undertaken an educational mission to the Greeks; remained two and a half years, for the most part in Smyrna and Athens, and learned to speak and write the modern Greek language; graduated from Williams College in 1837; began the study of law in 1838, in the office of David Dudley Field, and in 1841 became his partner and so remained for seven years; in 1848 traveled extensively in Europe; returning from Europe, started for California in November, 1849, arriving there December 28, 1849; located in Marysville in January, 1850, and was elected first alcalde of that city; under Mexican law the alcalde was an officer of limited jurisdiction, but in the anomalous condition of affairs he was called upon to administer justice, punish crime, and to enforce necessary police regulations until relieved by officers under the new constitution; was elected to the Second legislature, and was a member of the judiciary committee and framed the laws creating the judicial system of that State; from 1851 to 1857 he practiced his profession, and was then elected a judge of the supreme court for six years, from January 1, 1858; a vacancy occurring on the bench, he was appointed judge to fill it on the 13th of October, 1857; became chief justice in 1859; in 1863 was appointed by President Lincoln to his present position; in 1866 Williams College conferred upon him the degree of LL. D., and by the regents of the University of California in 1869 a professor of law in that institution.

JOHN MARSHALL HARLAN, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, was born in Boyle County, Ky., June 1, 1833; was graduated from Center College, Kentucky, in 1850; studied law at Transylvania University; practiced his profession at Frankfort; was elected county judge in 1858; was elector on the Bell and Everett ticket; removed to Louisville and formed a law partnership with Hon. W. F. Bullock; in 1861 raised the Tenth Kentucky Infantry Regiment and served in Gen. George H. Thomas's division; owing to the death of his father in the spring of 1863, although his name was before the Senate for confirmation as a brigadier-general, he felt compelled to resign; was elected attorney-general by the Union party in 1863 and filled the office until 1867, when he returned to active practice in Louisville; was the Republican nominee for governor in 1871; his name was presented by the Republican convention of his State in 1875 for the Vice-Presidency; was chairman of the delegation from his State to the national Republican convention in 1876; declined a diplomatic position as a substitute for the Attorney-Generalship, to which, before he reached Washington, President Hayes intended to assign him; served as a member of the Louisiana commission; was commissioned an Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court November 29, 1877, and took his seat December 10, same year.

HORACE GRAY, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, was born in Boston, Mass., March 24, 1828; was graduated from Harvard College in the class of 1845 and from the Harvard Law School in 1849; was admitted to the bar in 1851; was appointed reporter of the supreme judicial court of Massachusetts in 1854 and held the position until 1861; was appointed associate justice of the supreme judicial court of Massachusetts August 23, 1864, and chief justice of that court September 5, 1873; was commissioned an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States by President Arthur December 19, 1881.

DAVID JOSIAH BREWER, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, was born in Smyrna, Asia Minor, June 20, 1837; is the son of Rev. Josiah Brewer and Emilia A. Field, sister of David Dudley, Cyrus W., and Justice Stephen J. Field; his father was an early missionary to Turkey; was graduated from Yale College in 1856 and from the Albany Law School in 1858; established himself in his profession at Leavenworth, Kans., in 1859, where he resided until he removed to Washington to enter upon his present duties; in 1861 was appointed United States commissioner; from 1862 to 1865 was judge of the probate and criminal courts of Leavenworth County; from 1865 to 1869 was judge of the district court; from 1869 to 1870 was county attorney of Leavenworth; in 1870 was elected a justice of the supreme court of his State, and reelected in 1876 and 1882; in 1884 was appointed judge of the circuit court of the United States for the Eighth district; was appointed to his present position, to succeed Justice Stanley Matthews, deceased, in December, 1889, and was commissioned December 18, 1889.

HENRY BILLINGS BROWN, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, was born in South Lee, Mass., March 2, 1836; was graduated from Yale College in 1856; studied law for some time in a private office; attended lectures both at Yale and Harvard law schools, and was admitted to the bar of Wayne County, Mich., in July, 1860; in the spring of 1861, upon the election of Mr. Lincoln, was appointed deputy marshal of the United States, and subsequently assistant United States attorney for the eastern district of Michigan, a position he held until 1868, when he was appointed judge of the State circuit court of Wayne County, to fill a vacancy; held this office but a few months, and then returned to active practice in partnership with John S. Newberry and Ashley Pond, of Detroit, which continued until 1875, when he was appointed by President Grant district judge for the eastern district of Michigan, to succeed Hon. John W. Longyear; on December 23, 1890, was appointed Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, to succeed Justice Samuel F. Miller; was unanimously confirmed December 29, and took the oath of office January 5, 1891; received the degree of LL. D. from the University of Michigan in 1887 and from Yale University in 1891.

GEORGE SHIRAS, JR., Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, was born in Pittsburg, Pa., January 26, 1832; was graduated from Yale College in 1853; attended the Yale Law School in 1854; was admitted to the bar of Pennsylvania in 1856; practiced law in Pennsylvania till his appointment to the Supreme Bench; received the degree of LL. D. from Yale University in 1883; was one of the Pennsylvania Presidential electors in 1888; in July, 1892, was appointed to succeed Justice Joseph P. Bradley; took the oath of office October 10, 1892.

EDWARD DOUGLASS WHITE, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, was born in the parish of Lafourche, La., in November, 1845; was educated at Mount St. Mary's, near Emmitsburg, Md., at the Jesuit College in New Orleans, and at Georgetown (D. C.) College; served in the Confederate army; was licensed to practice law by the supreme court of Louisiana in December, 1863; elected State senator in 1874; was appointed associate justice of the supreme court of Louisiana in 1878; was elected to the United States Senate as a Democrat, to succeed James B. Eustis, and took his seat March 4, 1891; while serving his term as Senator from Louisiana was appointed, February 19, 1894, an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and took his seat March 12, 1894.

RUFUS W. PECKHAM, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, was born in the city of Albany and State of New York, November 8, 1838; his father was a native of Albany County, and had been district attorney of the county, justice of the supreme court of the State, and, at the time of his death in the shipwreck of the Ville de Havre, November 22, 1873, was one of the judges of the court of appeals of New York State. The son was educated at the Albany Academy and at one of the schools in Philadelphia; he studied law in the office of his father, who was then in partnership with Lyman Tremain, attorney-general of the State, practicing law under the firm name of Peckham & Tremain, in the city of Albany; he was admitted to the bar of the State in December, 1859; his father was in that year elected to the bench of the supreme court, and the son formed a partnership with the former partner of his father, under the firm name of Tremain & Peckham, which continued until the death of Mr. Tremain in December, 1878. In 1866 Mr. Peckham was married to a daughter of D. H. Arnold, an old New York merchant and at that time president of the Mercantile Bank in New York City. In 1868 he was elected district attorney of Albany County; was subsequently corporation counsel of Albany City, and in 1883 was elected a justice of the supreme court of the State. While serving as such he was elected, in 1886, an associate judge of the court of appeals of New York State, and while occupying a seat on that bench he was, in December, 1895, appointed by President Cleveland an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

RATES OF POSTAGE.

[United States Postal Regulations.]

First-class matter.—Letters, matter wholly or partly in writing, drawings and plans containing written words, letters, or descriptive figures, and matter which is sealed against inspection, are first-class matter, and subject to the postage rate of 2 cents for each ounce or fraction thereof.

On local or drop letters, 2 cents for each ounce or fraction thereof.

Postal cards having anything attached, or having writing or printing on the face, other than the address, are subject to letter rates of postage.

Second-class matter.—Embraces all newspapers and other periodical publications which are issued at stated intervals and as frequently as four times a year. On newspapers and periodical publications of the second class, when sent by others than the publisher or news agent, the postage shall be prepaid at the rate of 1 cent for each 4 ounces or fractional part thereof.

Third-class matter.—Embraces books, circulars, photographs, printed labels, proof sheets, corrected proof sheets with manuscript copy accompanying the same, seeds, cuttings, roots, scions, and plants, and postage shall be paid thereon at the rate of 1 cent for each 2 ounces or fractional part thereof.

Fourth-class matter.—Embraces blank address tags or labels, patterns, playing cards, visiting cards, ornamented paper, and all other matter of the same general character, the printing upon which is not designed to instruct, amuse, cultivate the mind or taste, or impart general information. This class also includes merchandise, and samples of merchandise, models, samples of ores, metals, minerals, cut flowers, and any other matter not included in the first, second, or third classes, and which is not liable to destroy or otherwise damage the contents of the mail bag. Postage rate thereon, 1 cent for each ounce or fractional part thereof.

The sender's name and address should in all cases appear upon the wrapper of third and fourth class matter,

RULES GOVERNING PRESS GALLERIES.

1. Persons desiring admission to the Press Galleries shall make application to the Speaker, as required by Rule XXXVI of the House of Representatives, and to the Committee on Rules of the Senate, as required by Rule V for the Regulation of the Senate Wing of the Capitol; and shall also state, in writing, for what paper or papers they are employed; and shall further state that they are not engaged in the prosecution of claims pending before Congress or the Departments, and will not become so engaged while allowed admission to the galleries; and that they are not in any sense the agents or representatives of persons or corporations having legislation before Congress, and will not become either while retaining their places in the galleries, and that they are not employed in an Executive or Legislative department, and will not become so employed while accepting the privileges of the galleries. Visiting journalists who may be allowed temporary admission to the galleries must conform to the restrictions of this rule.

2. The applications required by above rule shall be authenticated in a manner that shall be satisfactory to the Standing Committee of Correspondents, who shall see that the occupation of the galleries is confined to bona fide telegraphic correspondents of reputable standing in their business, who represent daily newspapers, and not exceeding one seat shall be assigned to each paper; and it shall be the duty of the Standing Committee, at their discretion, to report violations of the privileges of the galleries to the Speaker, or to the Senate Committee on Rules, and pending action thereon the offending correspondent shall be suspended.

3. Persons employed in the Executive or Legislative Departments of the Government, and persons engaged in other occupations whose chief attention is not given to newspaper correspondence, shall not be entitled to admission to the Press Galleries; and the Press List in the Congressional Directory shall be a list only of telegraphic correspondents.

4. Members of the families of correspondents are not entitled to admission.

5. The galleries, subject to the approval of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the supervision and control of the Senate Committee on Rules, shall be under the control of the Standing Committee of Correspondents.

Approved,

T. B. REED,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Approved by the Committee on Rules of the Senate.

NELSON W. ALDRICH,
Chairman Committee on Rules.

E. G. DUNNELL, Chairman,
O'BRIEN MOORE,
ROBERT J. WYNNE,
RAYMOND PATTERSON,
